RIDGEWOOD HIGH SCHOOL

2401 Orchid Lake Road, New Port Richey, Florida

MAKING WAVES

We dragged ourselves out of bed and into our usual routine. Rushing around, getting ready for the long day ahead, most of us make it to school by the time the tardy bell rings at 7:15. An earlier start in the morning was just one of the surprises that greeted us when we first came back to school in August. Not only do we have to arrive at school ten minutes early, but we also have to stay an extra twenty minutes. All these ideas were put together in order to form a seventh period. This extra class was created in order to give students the opportunity to receive the extra credits now needed to graduate. This year, according to the state legislature, the Seniors of 1986 will need 23 credits to graduate, and the Seniors of 1987 will need 25 credits to graduate. New classes were added to the school's curriculum, such as Accounting, French II, and Trigonometry. Also, for the first year the FBLA (Future Business Leaders of America) was initiated, and the Student Council was greatly reduced in size.

Along with the changes that were expected when we came back, there were changes that were not expected. One major one was the new attendance policy. It has been decided that students must attend a minimum of eighty-one class hours of each course in order to pass. If a student misses more than nine class hours of a class, then he or she must pass a special test at the end of semester in order to pass.

Another major change was the omission of homeroom in the morning and the placing of it during fourth period. This was done to add more time to the lunch period.

All those changes took place so that Ridgewood could become a better place to live and learn.

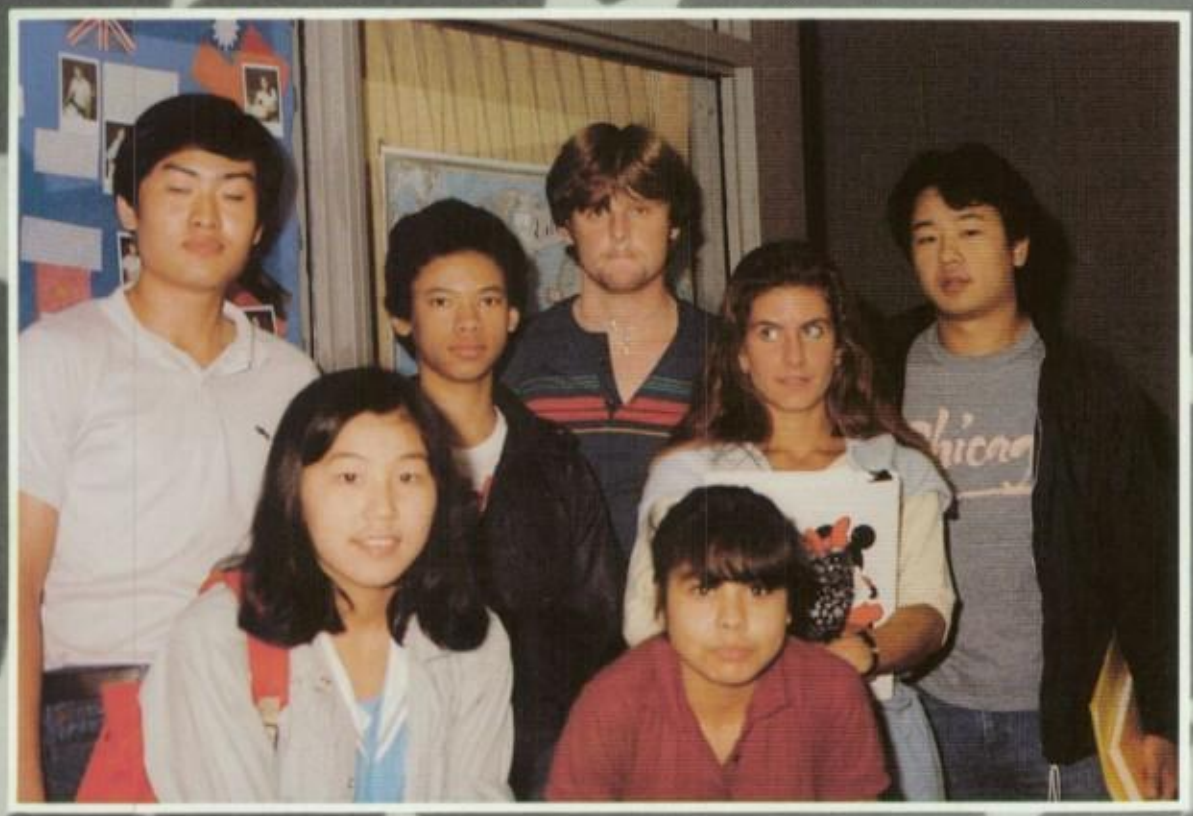
What had seemed so routine and changless last year suddenly became memories and a new beginning took place. Now, Ridgewood students are finally being considered high school students. While we live our lives, day by day, we don't realize that we are becoming the same high school students that are watched on television and envied in the movies. We don't realize that we are doing all the things that our parents did in high school and that we always dreamed of doing. We are starting to make a change, like that of a droplet hitting a pool of still water, that is getting us watched. We are letting people know just who and what we are. We are also letting the community and other high schools know that we are here! It's being realized that we are not just students, but very special individuals who are living their lives each day the best way they can — by trying to achieve . . . athletically, academically, or just personally. We are causing the waves that tell society "Notice me, I'm special!"

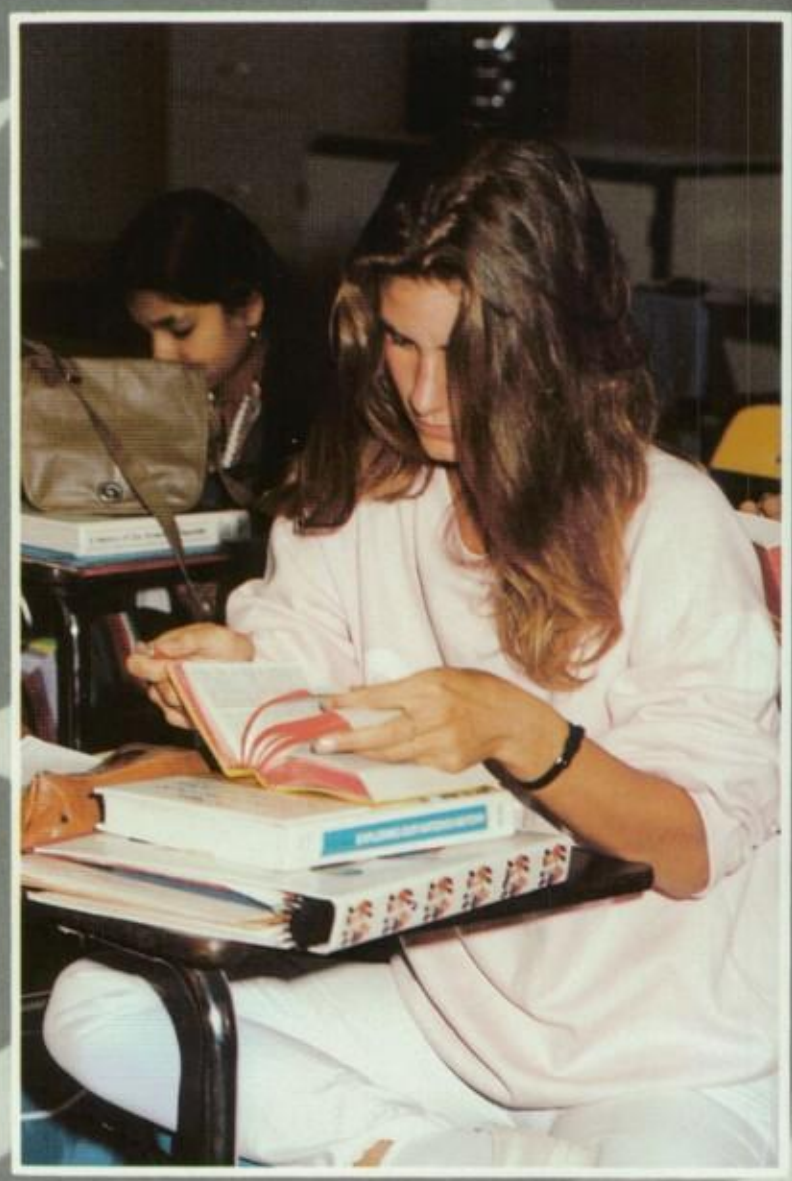
STARTING THE DAY OFF WITH A

Once in a great while something happens to begin the day in a special way. Sometimes it's the blast-off of a space shuttle, sometimes it's the receiving of flowers as Mrs. Virgadamo does, and sometimes it is even better, as Danny Maltese and Lisa DeCiucies prove.

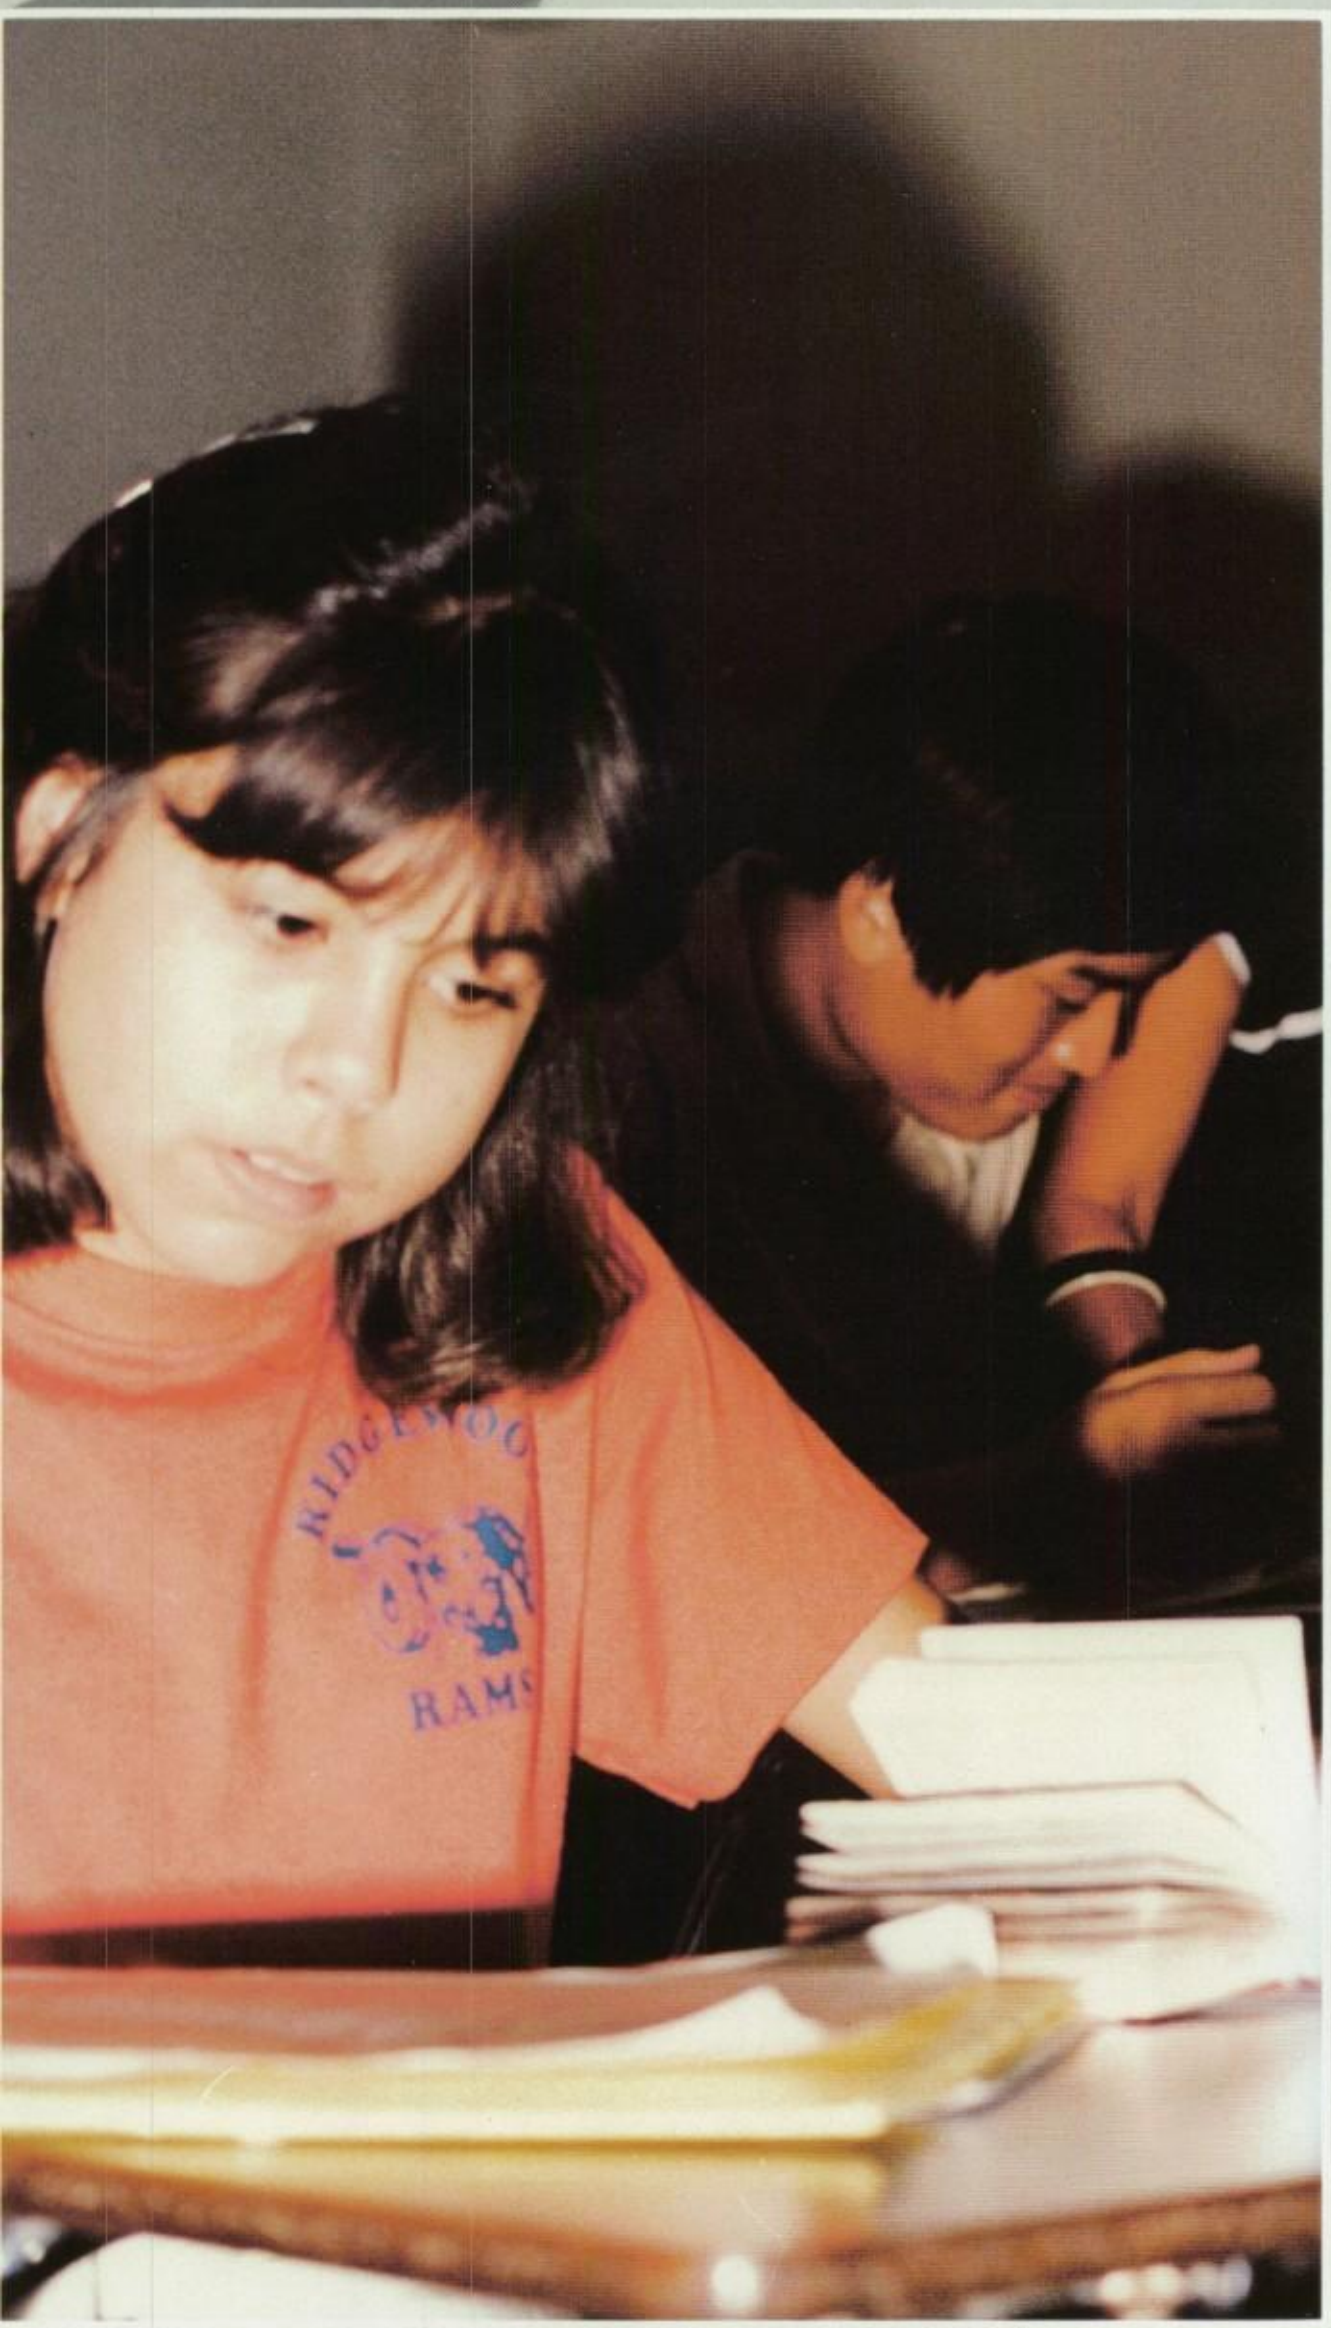
BANG

WELCOME TO



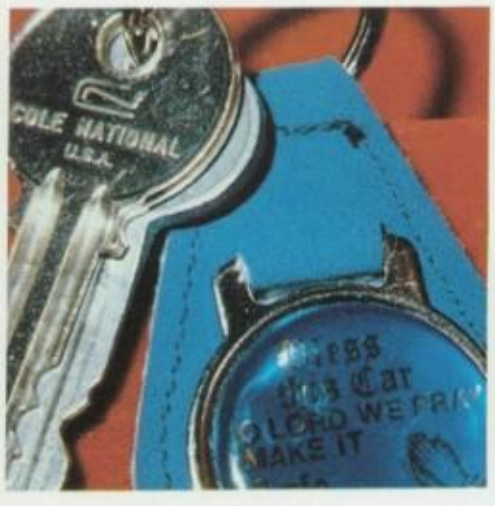


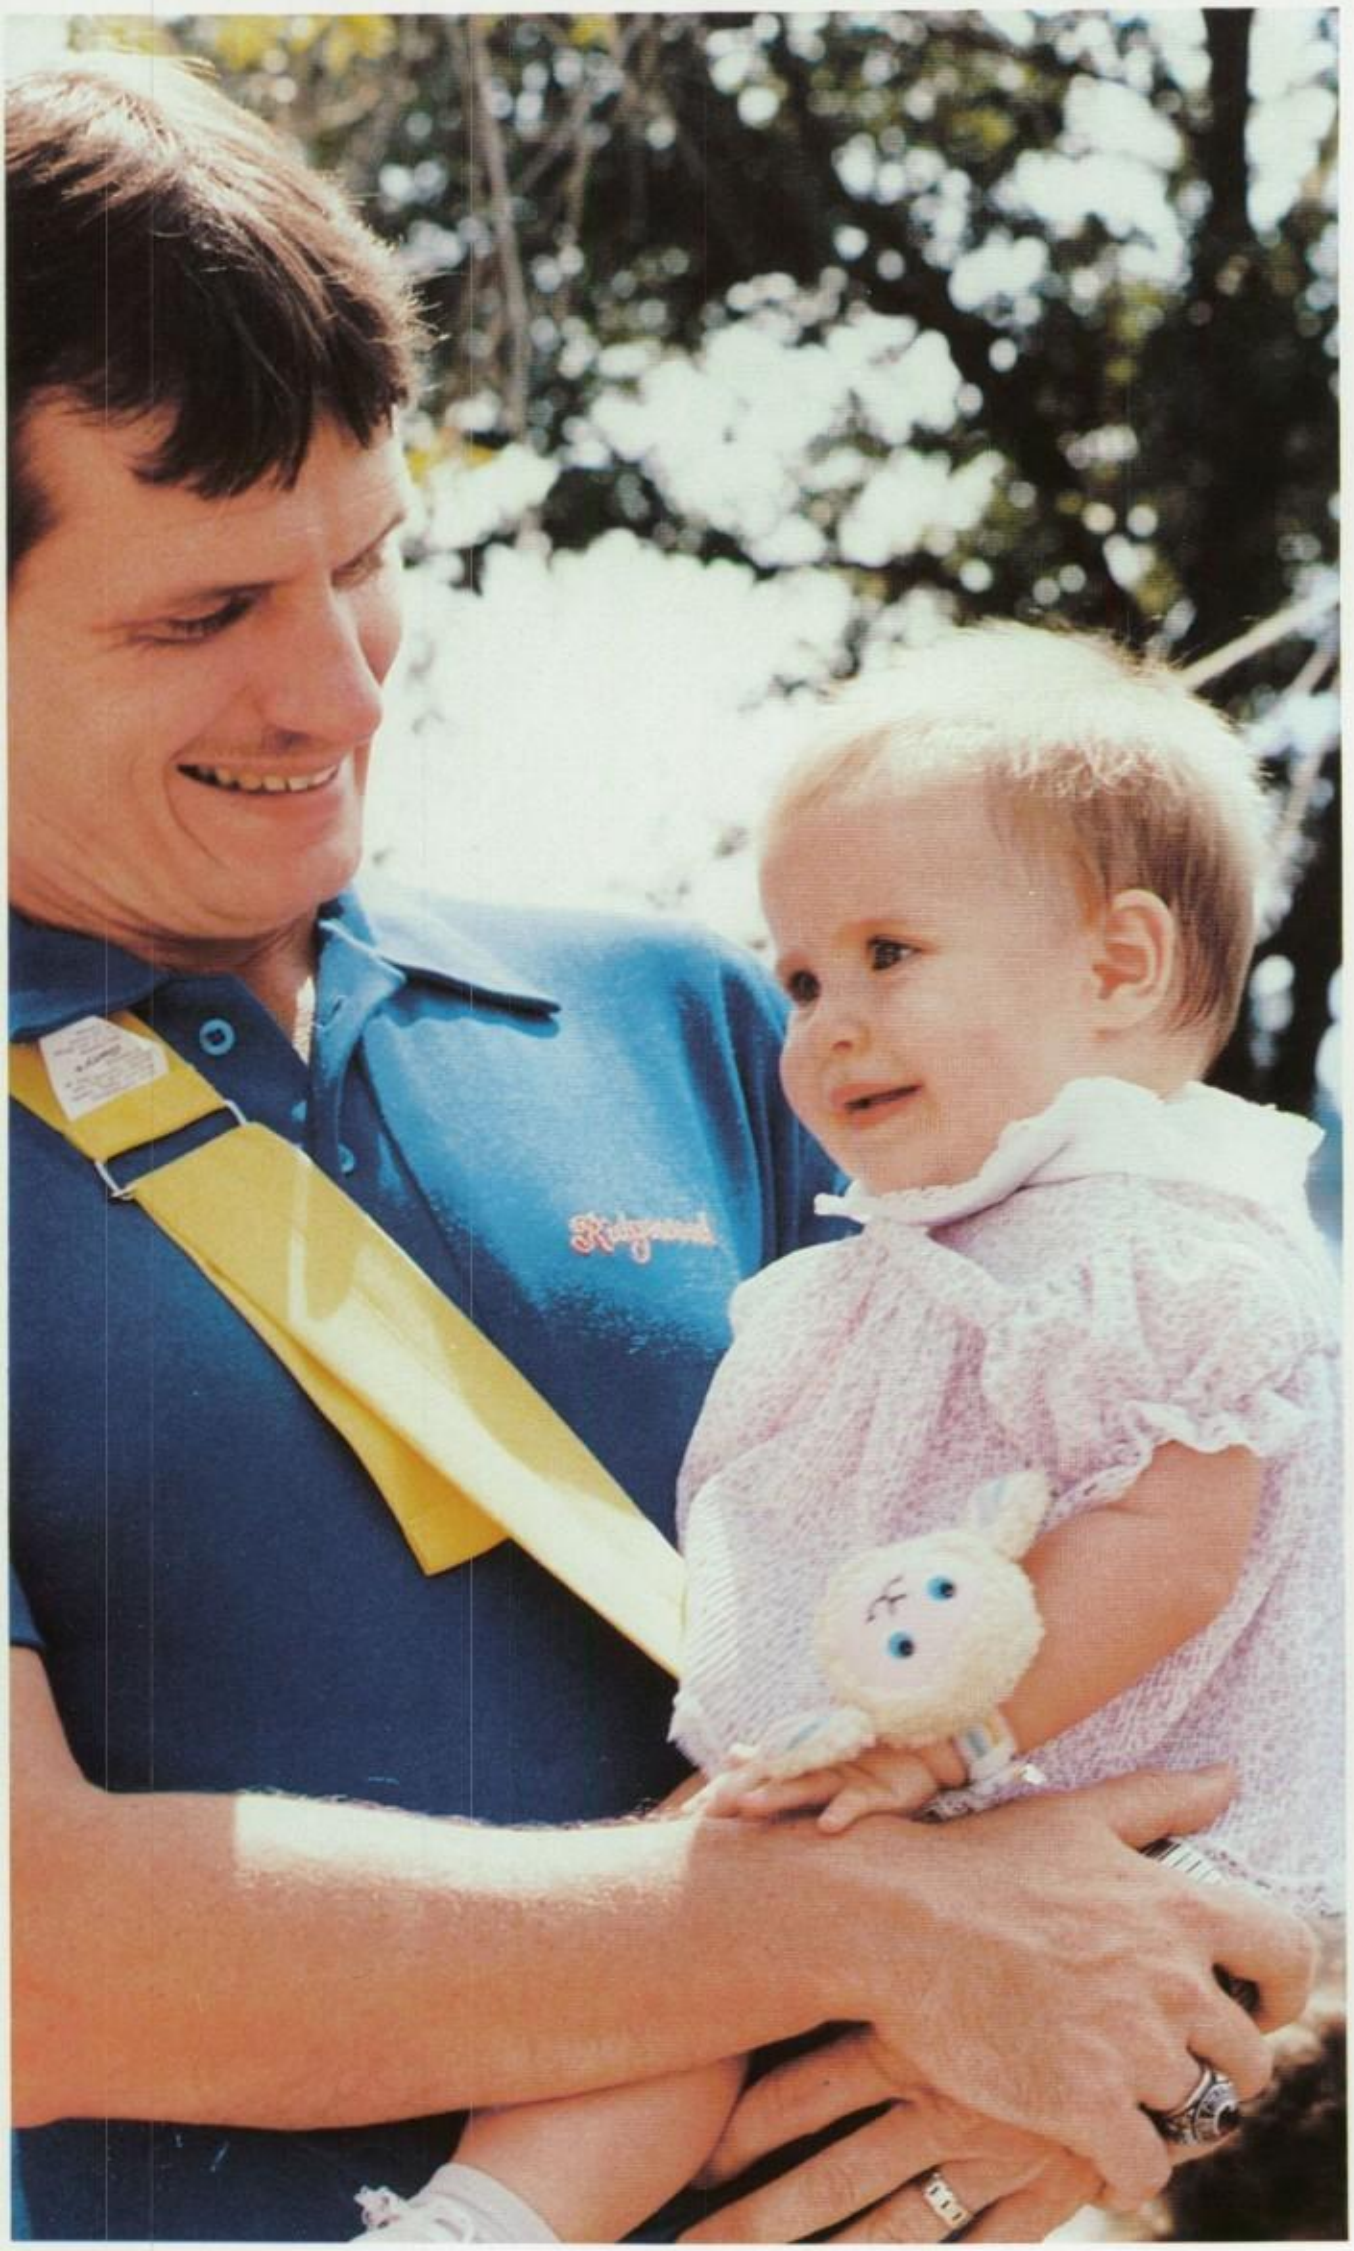
AMERICA



During this year, Ridgewood students were given the opportunity to study with students from other countries. Some of them came from as far away as Germany and Hong Kong. On the far page Yunming Gao, Juan Rosado, Yong Choi, Ni Tu, Tonja Bambek, Joanna Wang, and Nancy Melo bunch together for a group shot. To the right Tonja Bambek studies diligently. Below her, Lei Lee discovers some new English words. On this page Nancy Melo tries to figure out just what she is really doing, and next to her Yunming Gao gives a pleasing smile of satisfaction.

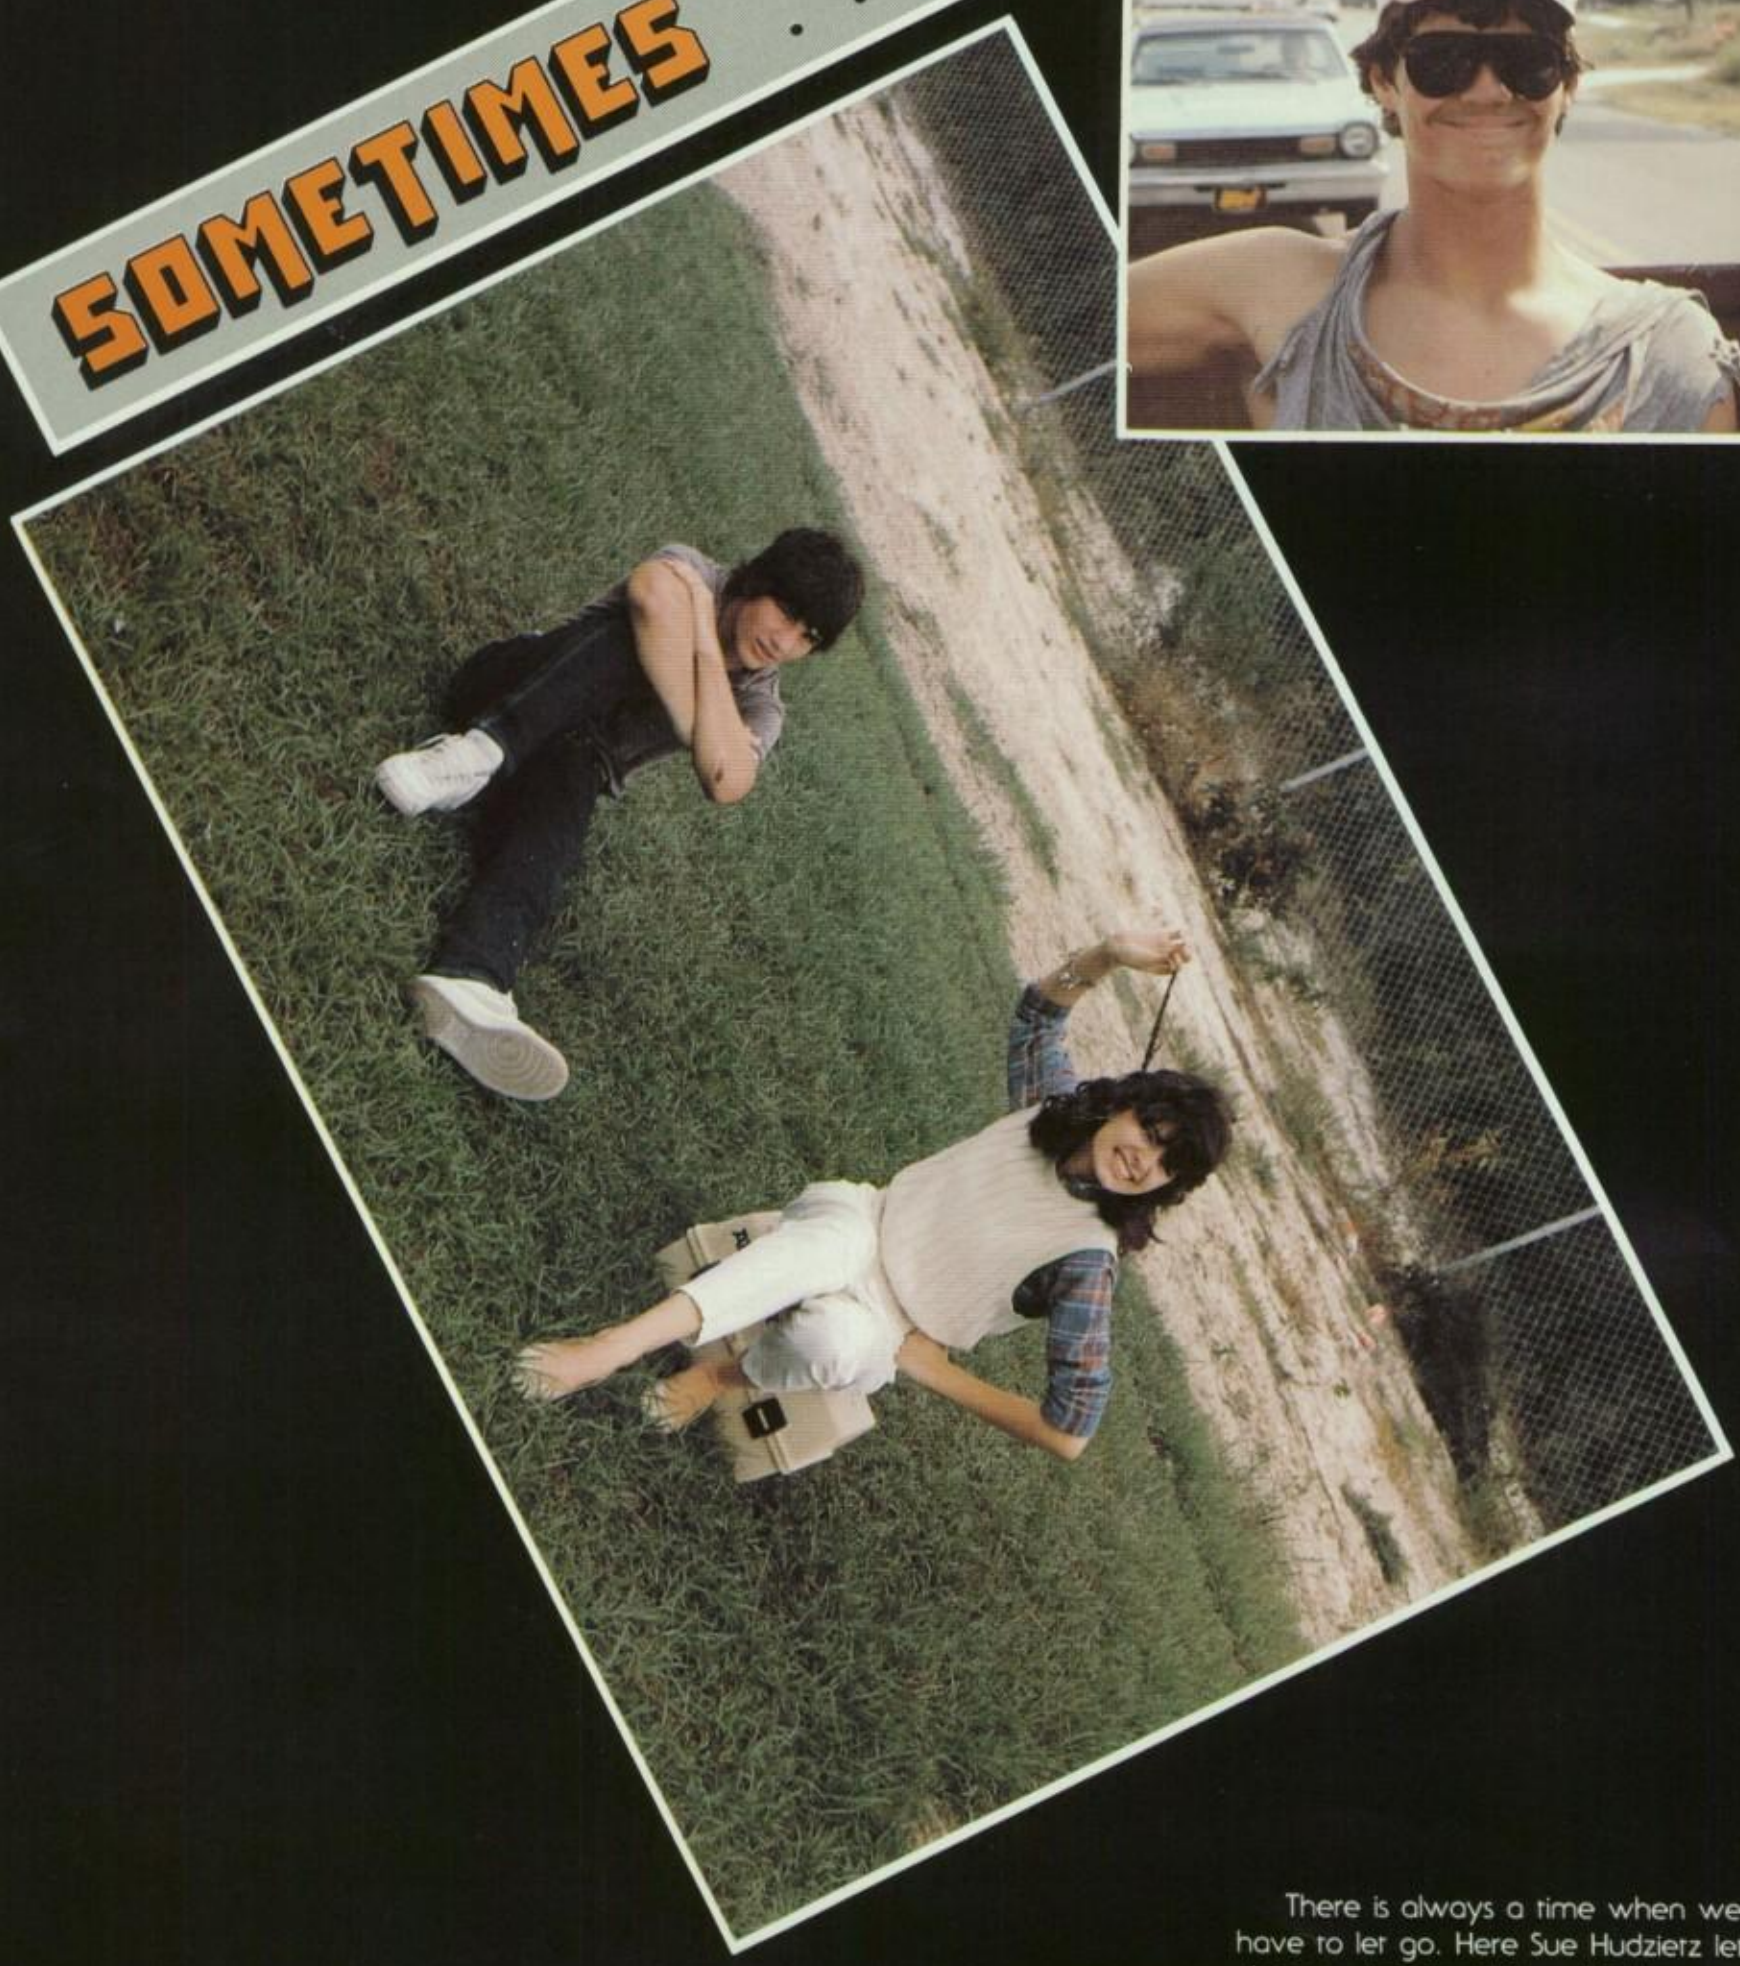
MY FAVORITE THINGS





In everybody's life we find something we value and treasure. Whether it be a telephone, money, or just people, we enjoy having it. Here we see that friends are at the top of the list along with babies, food, cars, sun, and fun. These are just a few of "our favorite things."

SOMETIMES . . .



YOU

There is always a time when we just have to let go. Here Sue Hudzietz lets us know what she thinks. Jeff Heyen gives us a look of pure satisfaction and Angel Rodriquez lets all his energy loose.

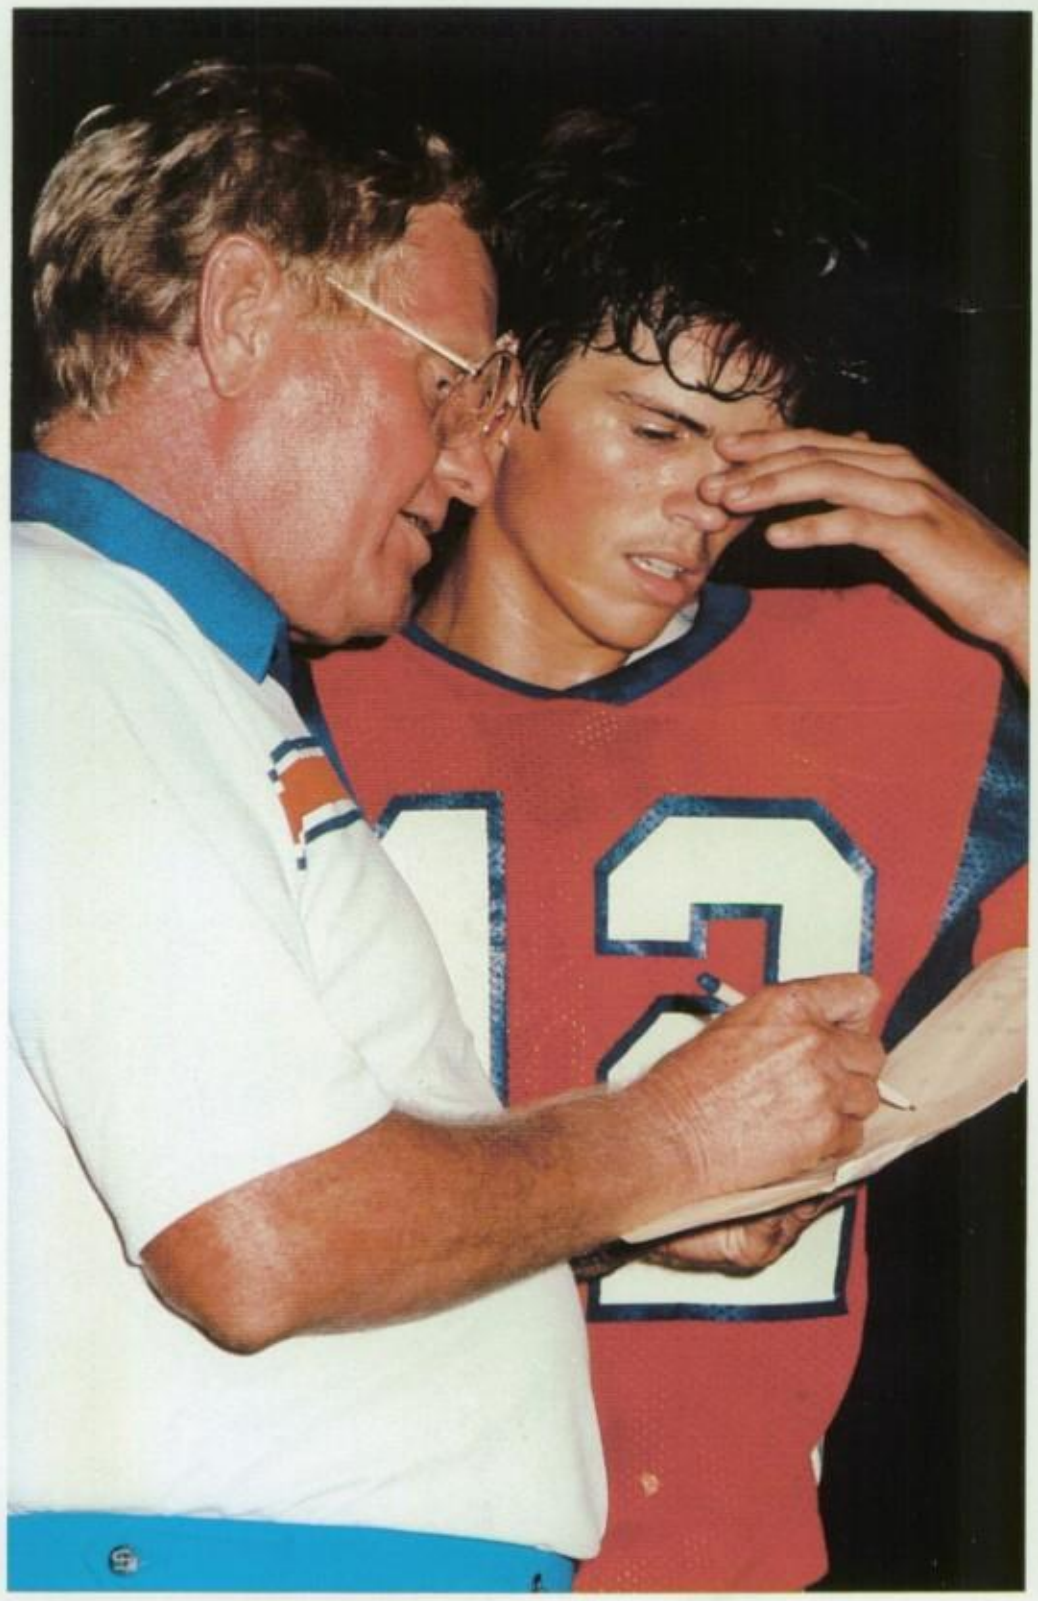
DEDICATED HEARTS



Drop a Pebble in the Water

Drop a pebble in the water; just a splash and it is gone;
But there's half-a-hundred ripples circling on and on and on;
Spreading, spreading, from the center, flowing on out to the sea.
And there is no way of telling where the end is going to be.

Drop a pebble in the water; in a minute you forget,
But there's little waves a-flowing, and there's ripples circling yet;
And those little waves a-flowing to a great big wave have grown;
You've disturbed a mighty river just by dropping in a stone.

Drop an unkind word, or careless; in a minute it is gone;
But there's half-a-hundred ripples circling on and on and on.
They keep spreading, spreading, from the center as they go, and there is no way to stop them once you've started them to flow.

Drop an unkind word, or careless; in a minute you forget;
But there's little waves a-flowing and there's ripples circling yet
And perhaps in some sad heart a mighty wave of tears you've stirred,
And disturb a life was happy ere you drop that unkind word.

Drop a word of cheer and kindess; just a splash an it is gone;
But there's a half-a-hundred ripples circling on and on and on,
Bearing hope and joy and comfort an each splashing, dashing wave.
Till you wouldn't believe the volume of the one kind word you gave.

Drop a word of cheer and kindness; in a minute you forget;
But there's gladness still a-swelling, and there's joy a-circling yet.
And you've rolled a wave of comfort whose sweet music can be heard, over miles and miles of water just by dropping one kind word.

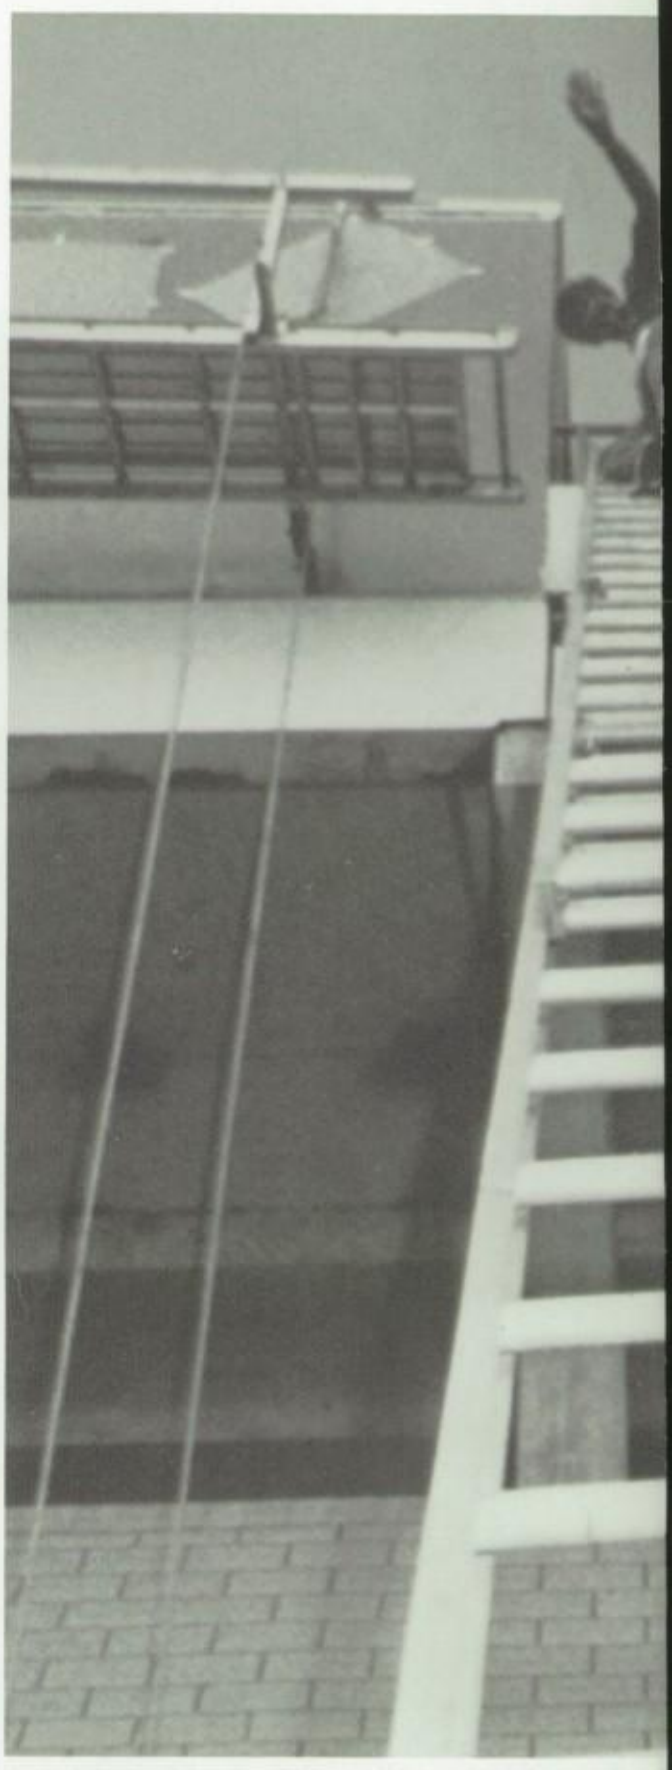
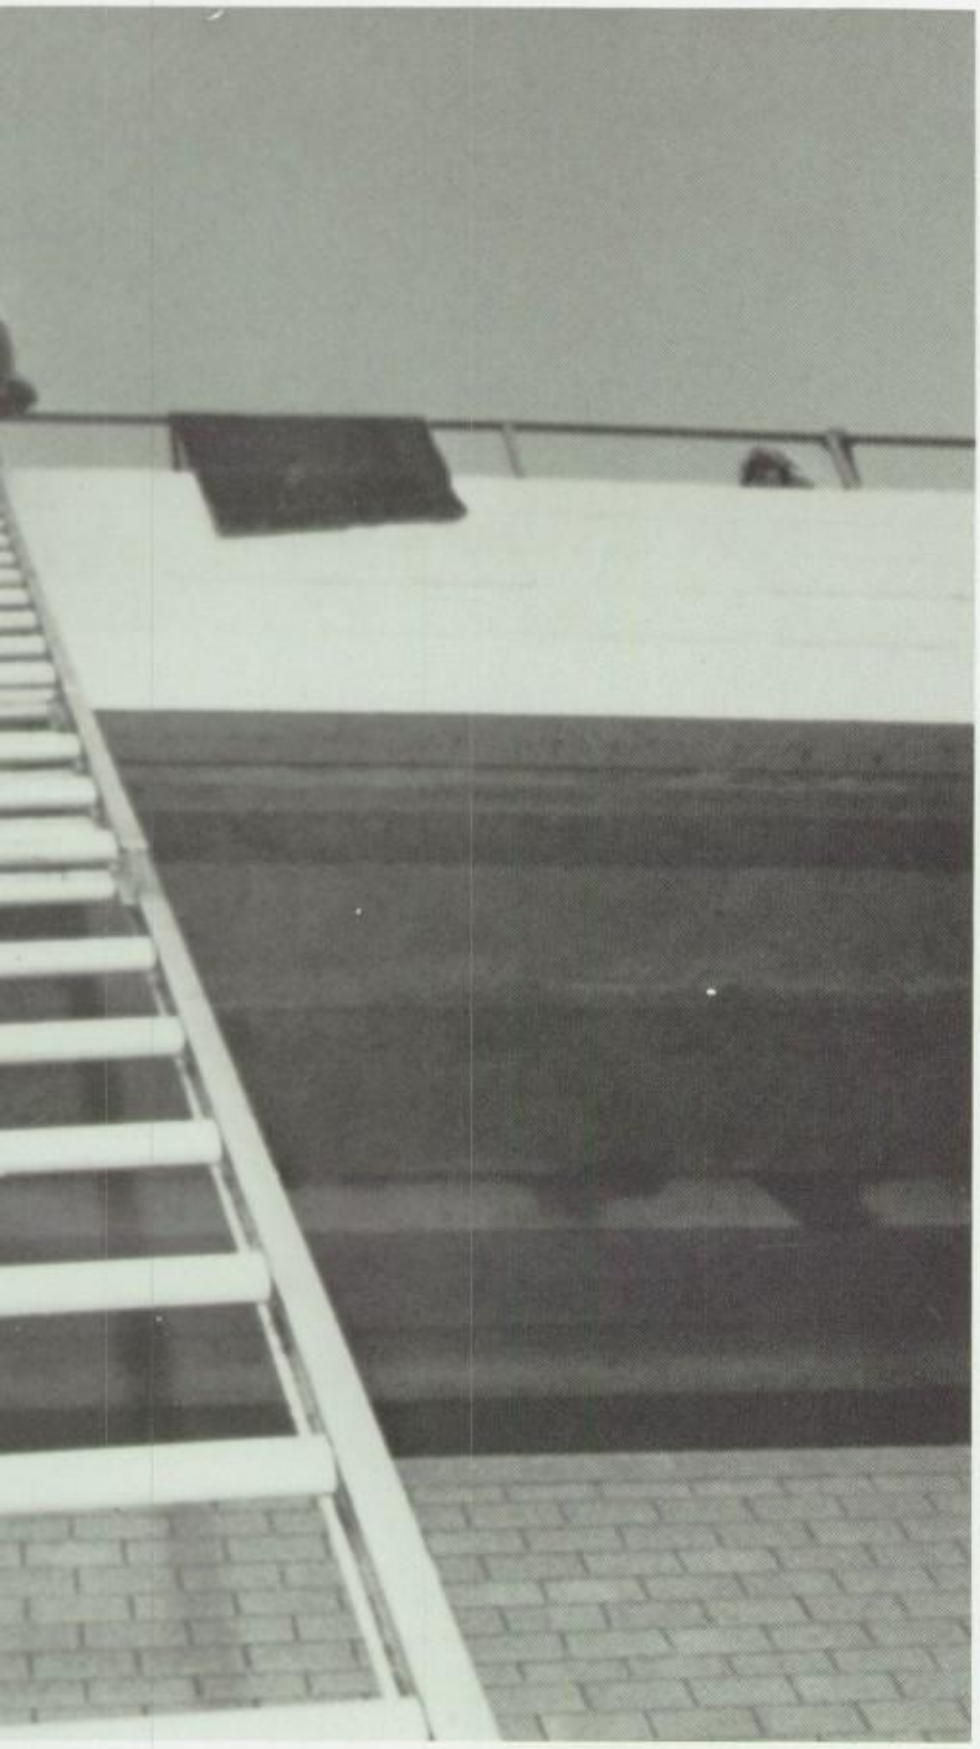
YOU AND YOUR BRIGHT IDEAS



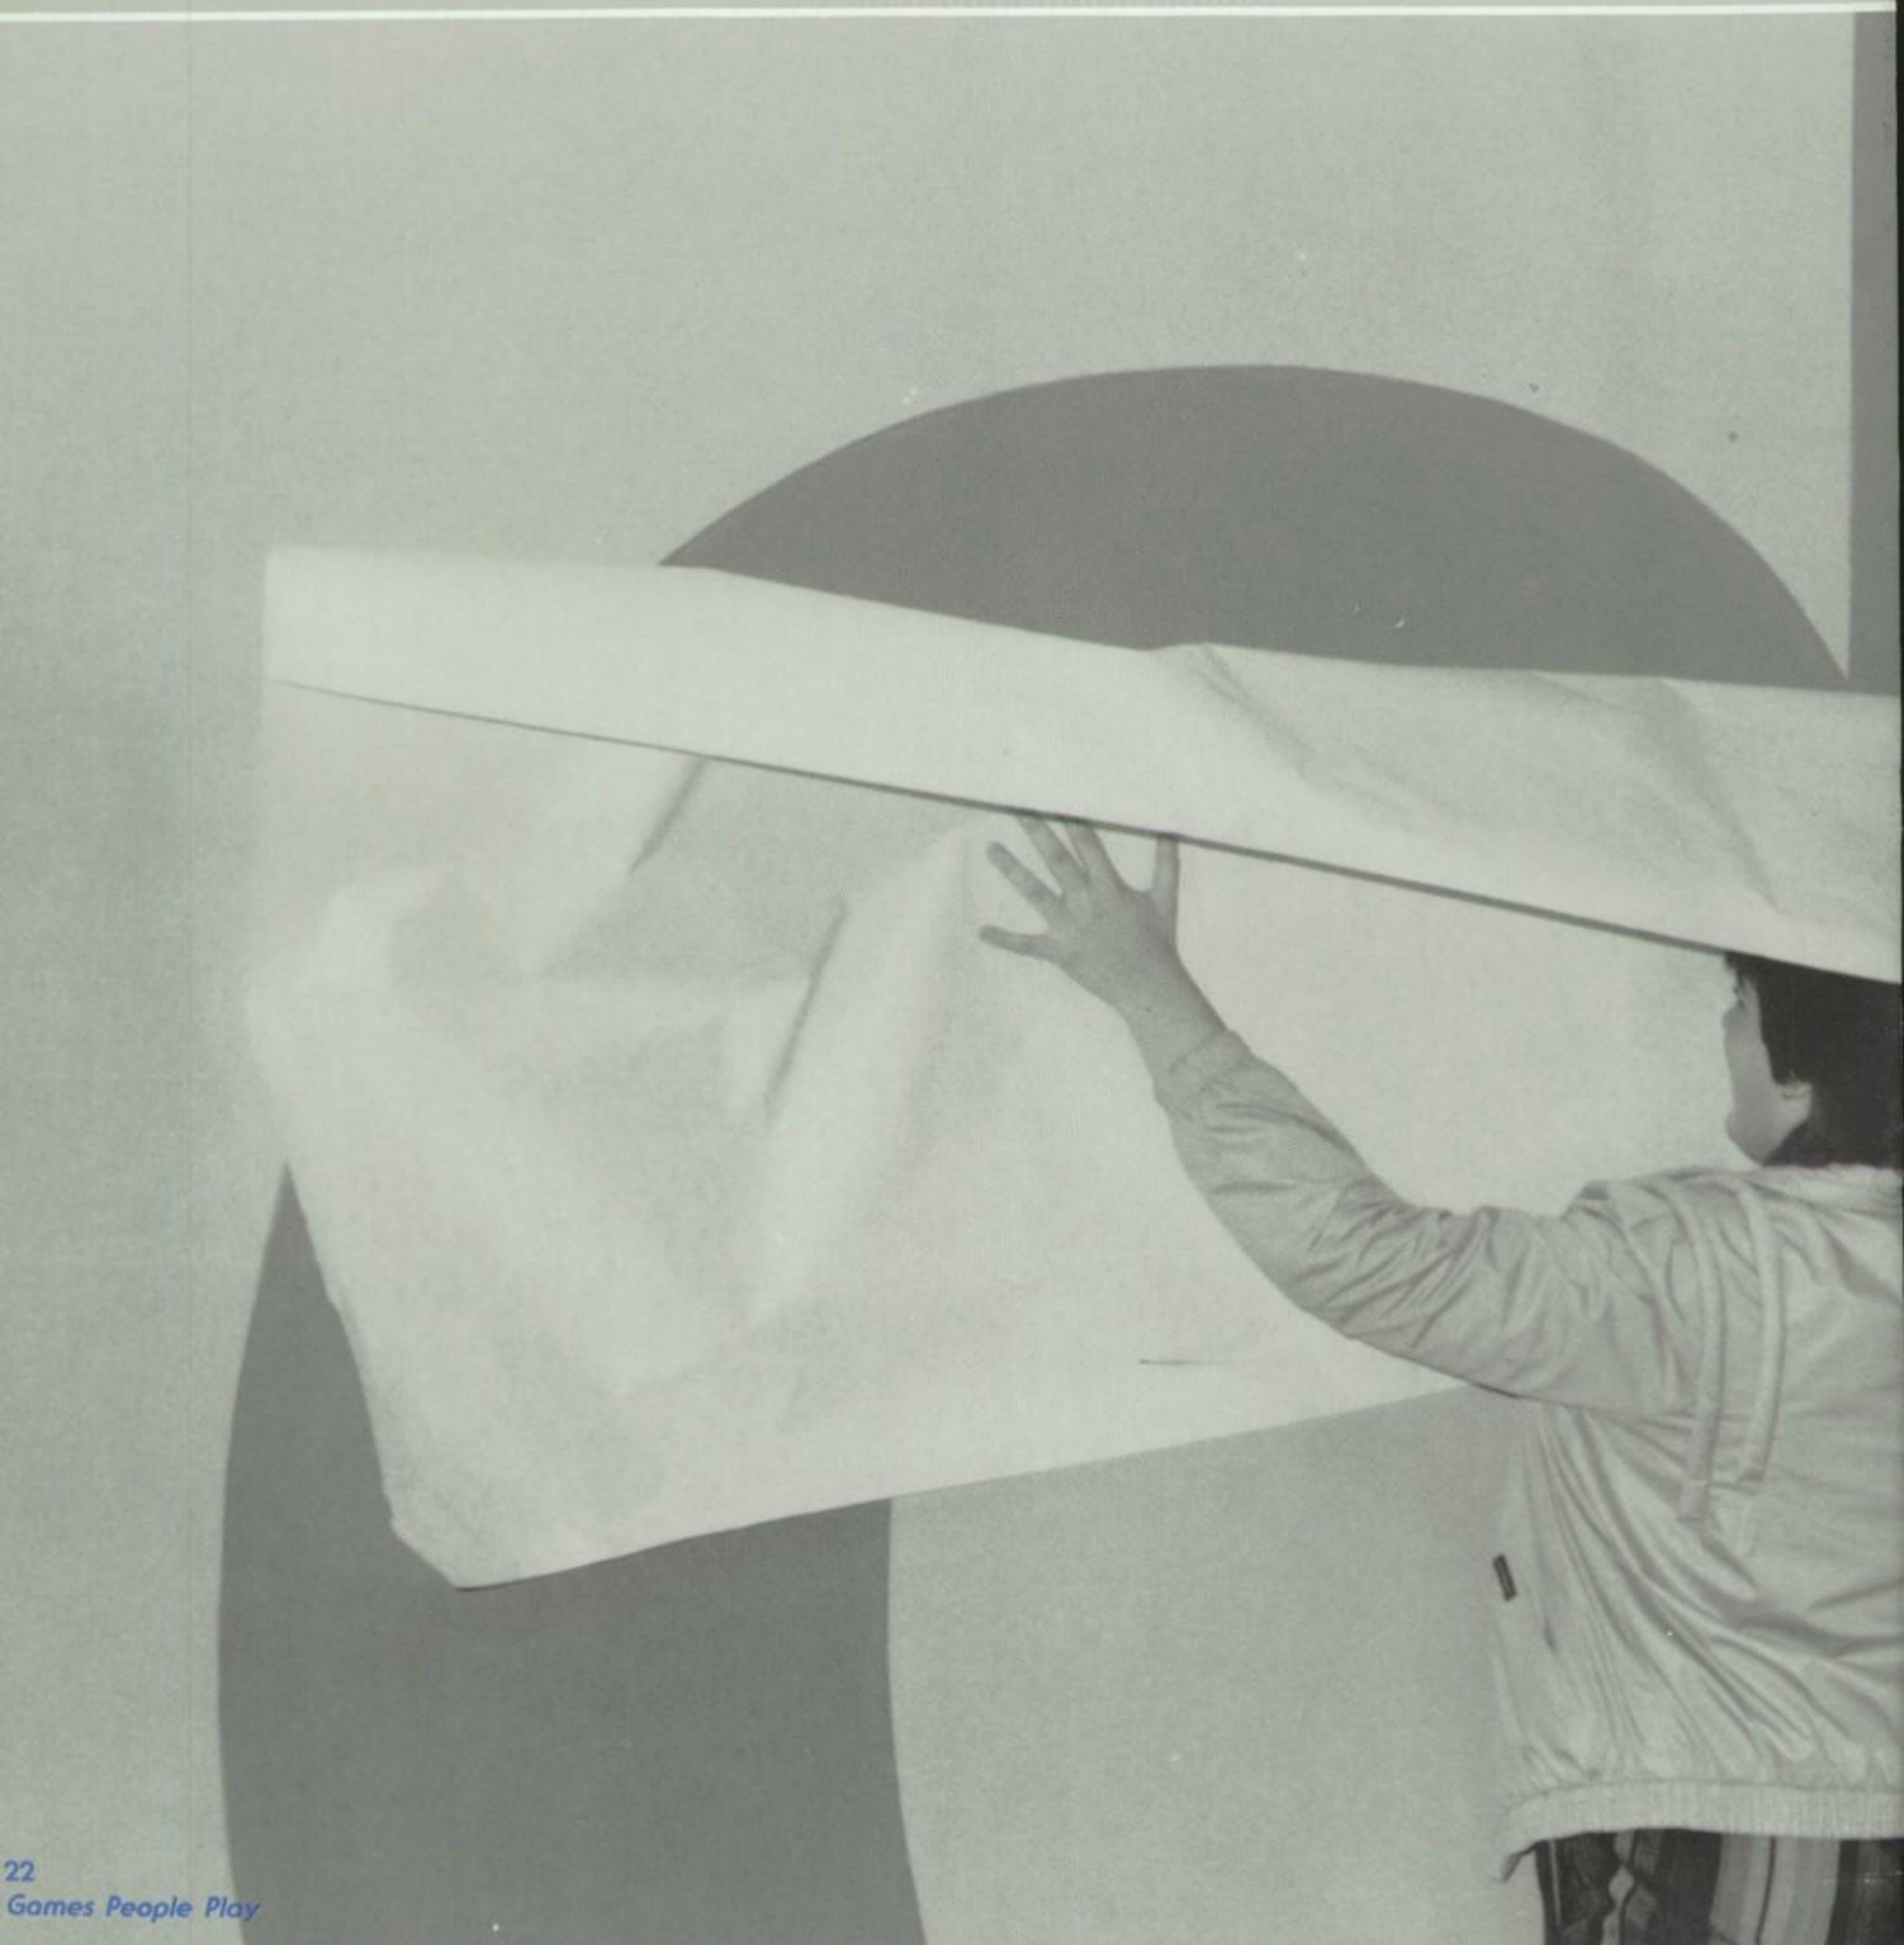


Have you ever gotten the feeling that an idea someone has given you wasn't as brilliant as you originally thought? To the left we see one of the many construction workers wondering how he is going to get down from up there. In the bottom left Steve Martin finds out what happens when you don't clean your locker. To the right of him Dawn Cisowski decides to help out in the lunchroom. In the bottom right corner we see an ominous looking car. Above that Julie Stenger conciders Nancy Melo's offer to help her down.

ONE IN A MILLION

No matter who you are, you're special. One individual unique from all the rest. On the opposite page Jennifer Campolettano makes one of those unforgettable faces. To the right Barbara Grierson and Anna Grey prepare lunch. To the left of them Virginia Leatherberry single-handedly manages the school's finances, including all the organizations and athletic teams. Below we see what really takes place in the vocational classes.

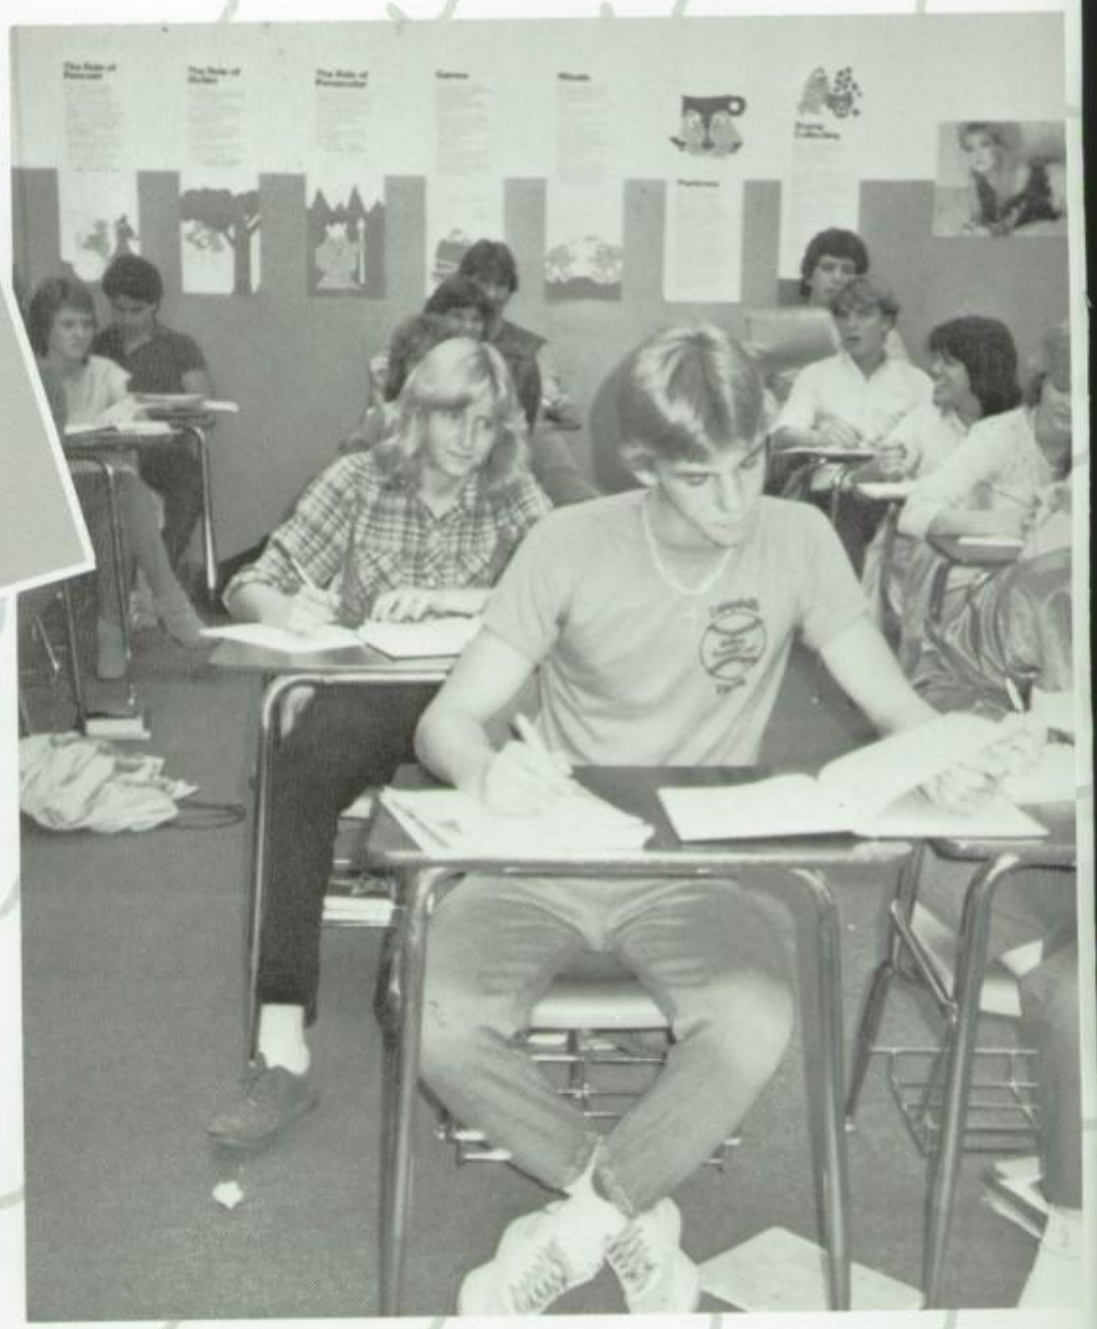
GAMES PEOPLE PLAY



There is so much seriousness in our lives that every once in a while we just have to cut loose. Below right Lisa Petrizzi helps out at the cheerleaders car wash. Above we see Chris Walzak thinking to her self, "If that referee fouls me I'm gonna say something nasty!" Below Shirley Gaunt tries to put up a poster. It's not working out, but it's worth missing class.

This section is a new edition to our book to inform you of changes in each academic department, to show you the types of activities that take place in the classes and in our school.

We have included pages on the media center, math, language arts, science, vocational classes, social studies, physical education and the arts.



Classes and Courses

Media

Throughout the 1984-85 school year, the Media Center will be going through some exciting changes. They will be getting 800 new books to compensate for the ones given to Hudson Middle School. They also got a new media specialist, Mrs. Carol Vanek, who replaced Mrs. Kollenbaum while on maternity leave. On November 2, 1984, Mrs. Kollenbaum left during lunch to have her baby. She had a boy, named Keith Cameron. She will be returning next school year.

Along with a new specialist and new books, the Media Center is getting a security system. This system will prevent any future loss of media books. They are also planning to expand their software to prepare for seniors next year. When asked what plans are made for seniors, Mrs. Holland said, "We hope to build up our collection to coincide with the curriculum and seniors needs".

Language Arts

The English courses here at Ridgewood are among the best with Mrs. Derousie at the helm as chairperson. The students have proven this fact through county and state exams. They have ranked among the top showing their knowledge and ability in the English area.

There are many different courses offered in the field of English. New this year is American Literature for the Juniors. The Freshmen and Sophomores take the offered courses on their levels and all grades may chose from drama and journalism.

All English classes are participating in the state mandated Gordon Writing Program. The program is good in the sense that students are able to increase their composition skills in a small class setting. The program does, however, create a lot of paper work for the teachers. The students are indeed fortunate to have such a good English curriculum here.

Social Studies

A new wave in social studies has arrived this year with new textbooks and courses. Psychology and sociology have been added along with an advanced placement American history. American government and comparative economics are also in the curriculum as new required courses. The social studies classes are all offered at varying ability levels. This year the big issue for the social studies classes is current events. A big welcome to Mr. Marshall and Mr. Gangi, they are both new teachers in our social studies department.

As a new challenge this year, advanced placement students were offered the opportunity to go to Washington D.C. during Easter vacation. In early summer, a foreign study program will be offered.

Math

The mathematics department at Ridgewood has to be the most complex area of academics. This is so, because numerous courses are offered for each level of the student's capability. Trigonometry and Analytical Geometry are offered to Juniors and is the highest level of math at Ridgewood. There are also many other sections of math to help students develop their skills. Liberal Arts was introduced to keep students interested in math as was Consumer Math with a strong orientation to shopping and everyday life.

The math department will be participating in a few contests this year. The countywide math and computer contests compares the skills of students across the entire county. Another is the Florida Math League which can be done in class. Through these contests, it is said that the students at Ridgewood are "close to the top, if not there".

It takes a special person to organize and control the math department. Miss Haywood is just the person for the job of Department Chairperson of Mathmatics. When asked how she likes it here, she replied, "I love Ridgewood".

Physical Education

SOME NEW WAVES IN PHYSICAL EDUCATION

P.E. is offering a variety of courses and is now able to meet the needs of more students. Personal fitness is new to Ridgewood and is now required for all students to graduate. Individual sports, team sports, weightlifting, and dance are a few of the courses offered this year. Our new gymnasium, weight room and sixteen station universal will provide students the opportunity to accomplish new heights in physical fitness.

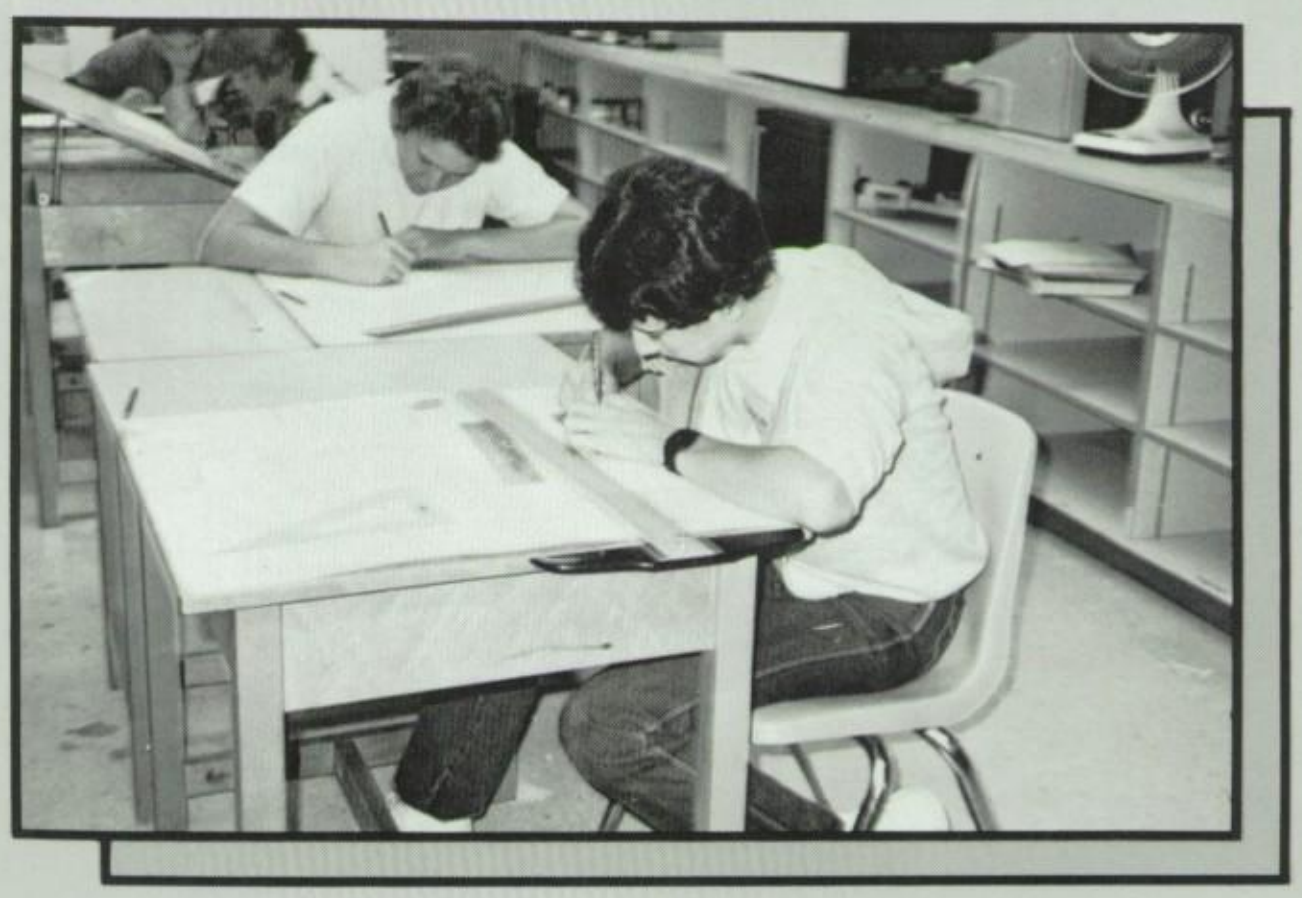
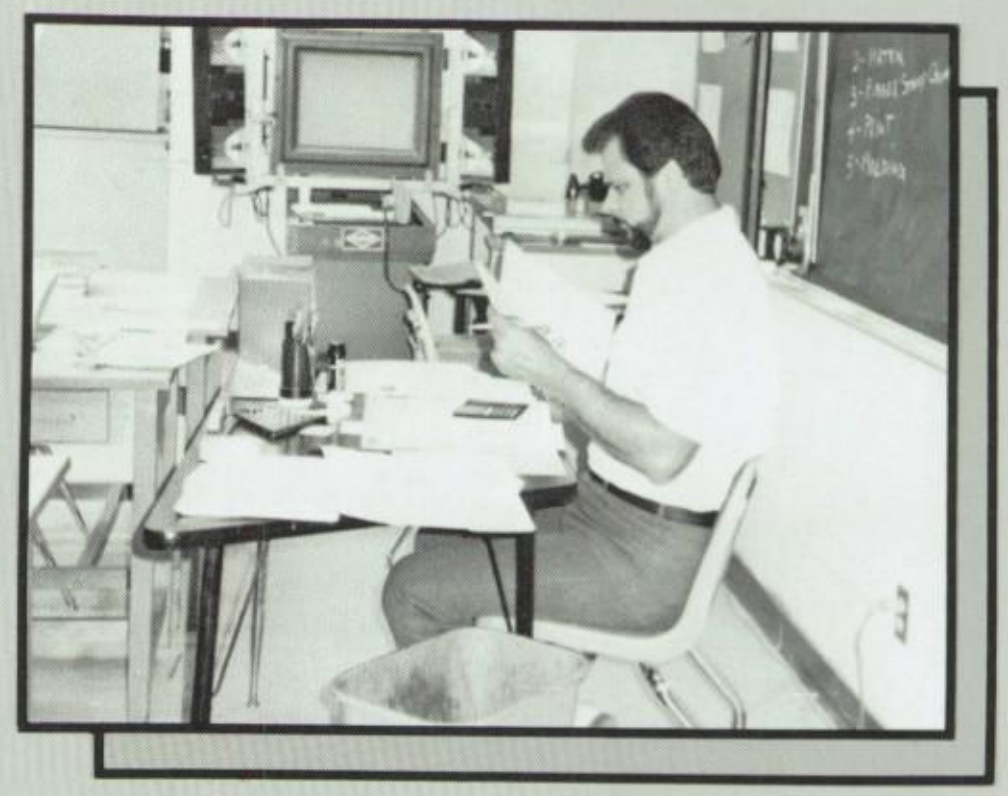
Vocational

This year's Vocational Department has gone through exciting changes. Many new teachers and classes have been added to the classes already available. The new teachers are Mr. Petrashek, Construction in room V-2. Another teacher is Mr. Janes, Nursery, Landscaping, and Practical Agriculture in room V-1. Cosmetology is being taught by Mrs. Allen second semester only. Typing is taught by Mrs. Prestininzi in room 113, along with Mrs. Meyer and Mrs. Virgadamo. Along with new teachers, new courses have been added. One of the courses is Life Management Skills, taught by Mrs. Taylor in room 216, and Mrs. Hlad, a returning teacher, also in room 216. The course is mandatory to graduate from all students the class of '87 on. Another course is Nursery. This course introduces students to the essentials of nursery running and caring. Finally, the last new course is Landscaping. This course is a means of teaching students how to landscape. We're sure that the students attending the many vocational classes will receive important hands-on skills needed to enter the vocational job world successfully.

Mr. Petrashek hard at work.





Mr. Trapani in deep concentration.

Science

The Science department has some new additions this year. There is a new teacher, Mr. Sbani, and some new courses. Mr. Perkins is teaching a new elective course in Oceanography and Mr. Sbani is teaching Advanced Chemistry. Mrs. Taylor has become a fulltime science teacher. Last year she taught Agriculture part of the day.

All science classes took part in the science Fair. Mr. Perkins was the head of the project and he is also the department chairperson.

The Arts

We have grouped here those special classes that don't fit into the other departments. This is where students can excel at instruments or vocal music, dancing, painting, or sculpting. These courses provide a break from the academic areas and enrich our lives as well. New to Ridgewood High this year is Ms. Jean Suttell, our art teacher.

Mrs. SuHell's art class works on sculpture.

Our Organizarions do more than have meetings, they have fun! From car washes to the beach, we know how to make waves in our community.

The Band, who has purchased new uniforms, received an excellent rating in F.B.A. competition. This is one point higher than last year. Keep up the good work!

We have added three clubs to our curriculum. They are the Future Business Leaders of America (F.B.L.A.), Interact, and the Nurserymen Association. We know our new clubs will be successful.

This year we have fifteen members on student council. We represent the student body at Ridgewood, bringing problems and questions to the attention of the administration.

Seeing that next year Ridgewood will have its first graduating class, and people are going off to college, we have set up a scholarship program. Beginning next year, Student council will help the graduating students by giving out scholarships.

One of the activities which the student council would like to sponsor is a powder puff football game. This is where the girls play football and the guys cheer them on. Other activities student council sponsors are school dances.

Let's say your folder is due in Math class. Your teacher told you that there is to be no writing on this folder. But, of course there is, and you forgot to buy a folder at the store last night. So what do you do? Go to the Ramshack! Not only do they have folders, but pencils, paper, and numerous other items. The store, operated by Mrs. Meyer and her Marketing students, recently purchased a brand new cash register, for more accurate and speedy service to all customers. So, if you're ever in need of supplies and need a great buy, visit the Ramshack!

ON AND OFF THE COURSE

The boys cross-country team blazed a trail for the rest of Ridgewood's athletic programs to follow . . . all the way to the state championship finals. The Rams, paced by Mike Champagne and David Remisiewicz, finished fourth in the Class 2A state meet in their first full year of varsity competition. "Remi" and "Champ" along with Jeff Thompson and coach Steve Persall, earned post-season honors from local newspapers for their efforts. Overall, 1984 was a banner season for the team, but their is still so much left to accomplish. The same goes for the girls team that placed fifth in the Gulf Coast Conference race. All-conference selection Kellie Cook led the girls team in its first season ever.

Ridgewood is a good school but it's the people of Ridgewood that make it great. With students and faculty working together, it has become the best school in Pasco. Zeal for football showed when the "bleacher creatures" came and participated. Academic excellence was achieved by students and awards were given. Now on to the most vital part of Ridgewood ... people!

People of Ridgewood

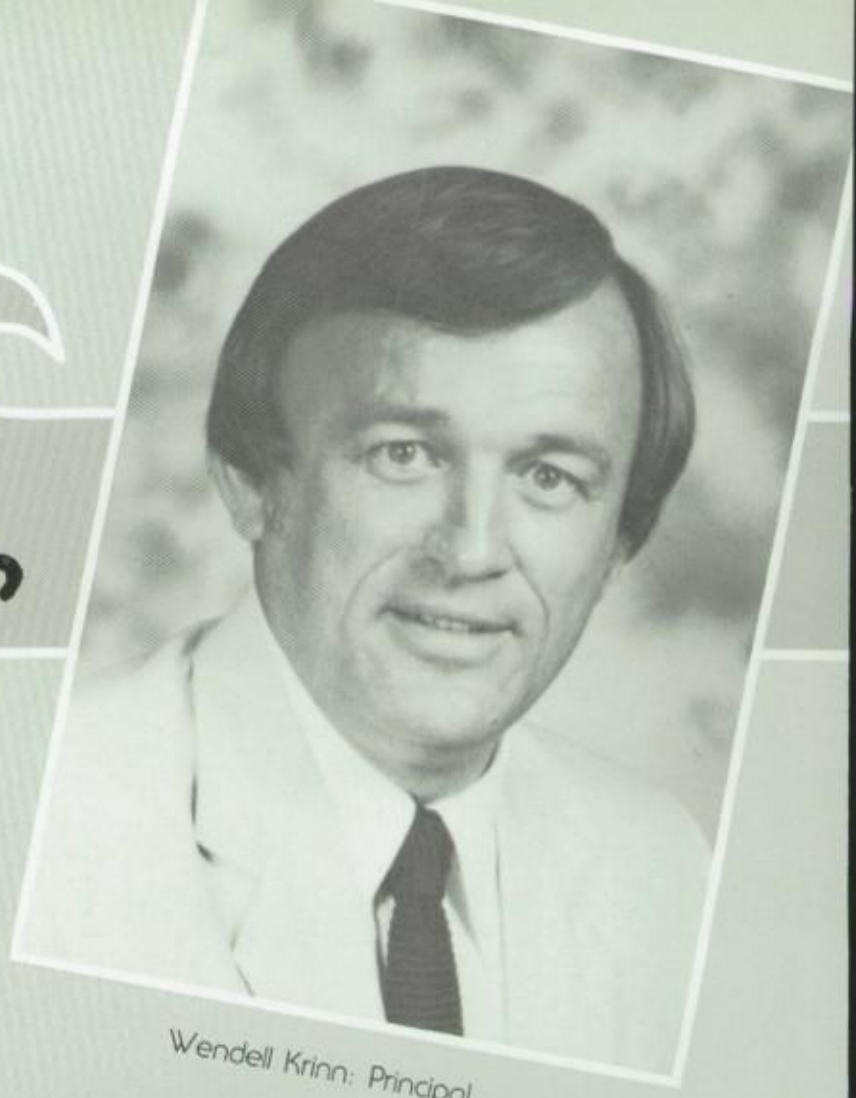
Keeping Us Afloat

These four administrators are the men who keep us afloat no matter how rough the waters get. They give to Ridgewood their devotion and experience. Our principal, Mr. Krinn is married and has six children. Before becoming an administrator, he taught Social Studies, Psychology, Physical Education, and Drivers Ed. When asked what he likes best about Ridgewood, he quickly answered, the students and the staff. Mr. Hulton is also married and has a one year old daughter named Erin. (Many students know Erin as she cheers on Ridgewood at many games, as does her father.) Mr. Hulton came to us from Gulf three years ago and has helped make our adjustment to high school become much easier. Mr. Rhum, as did Mr. Krinn, graduated from Ball State University. He's been our assistant principal for five years, and says there is nothing he likes better about Ridgewood than the student body. Finally, we come to Mr. Beers. He is the latest arrival to Ridgewood. He has been here for two years, and among his most famous contributions to Ridgewood is the addition of "Beersball." Without the expertise these men add to Ridgewood, our school would be just another drop in the bucket instead of a wave in the sea.



Wendell Krinn: Principal

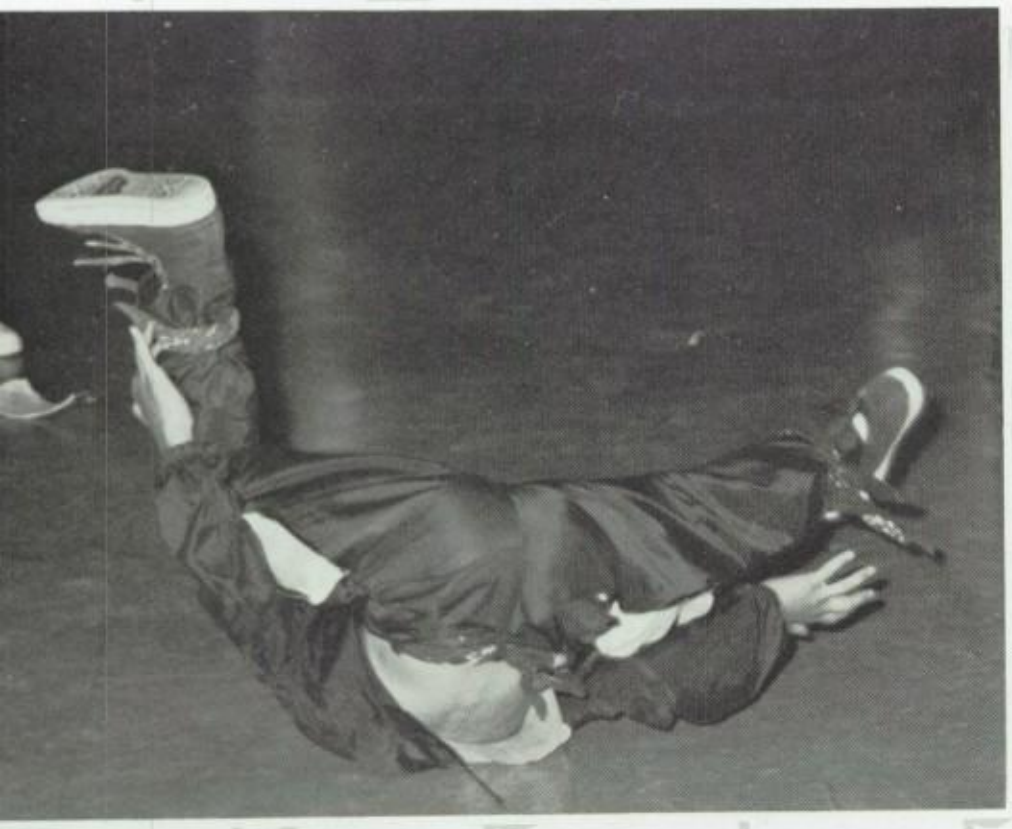
In looking over the school year we have definitely had some of the best of times. In our first year participating in the Q-105 school spirit contest, Ridgewood received second place.

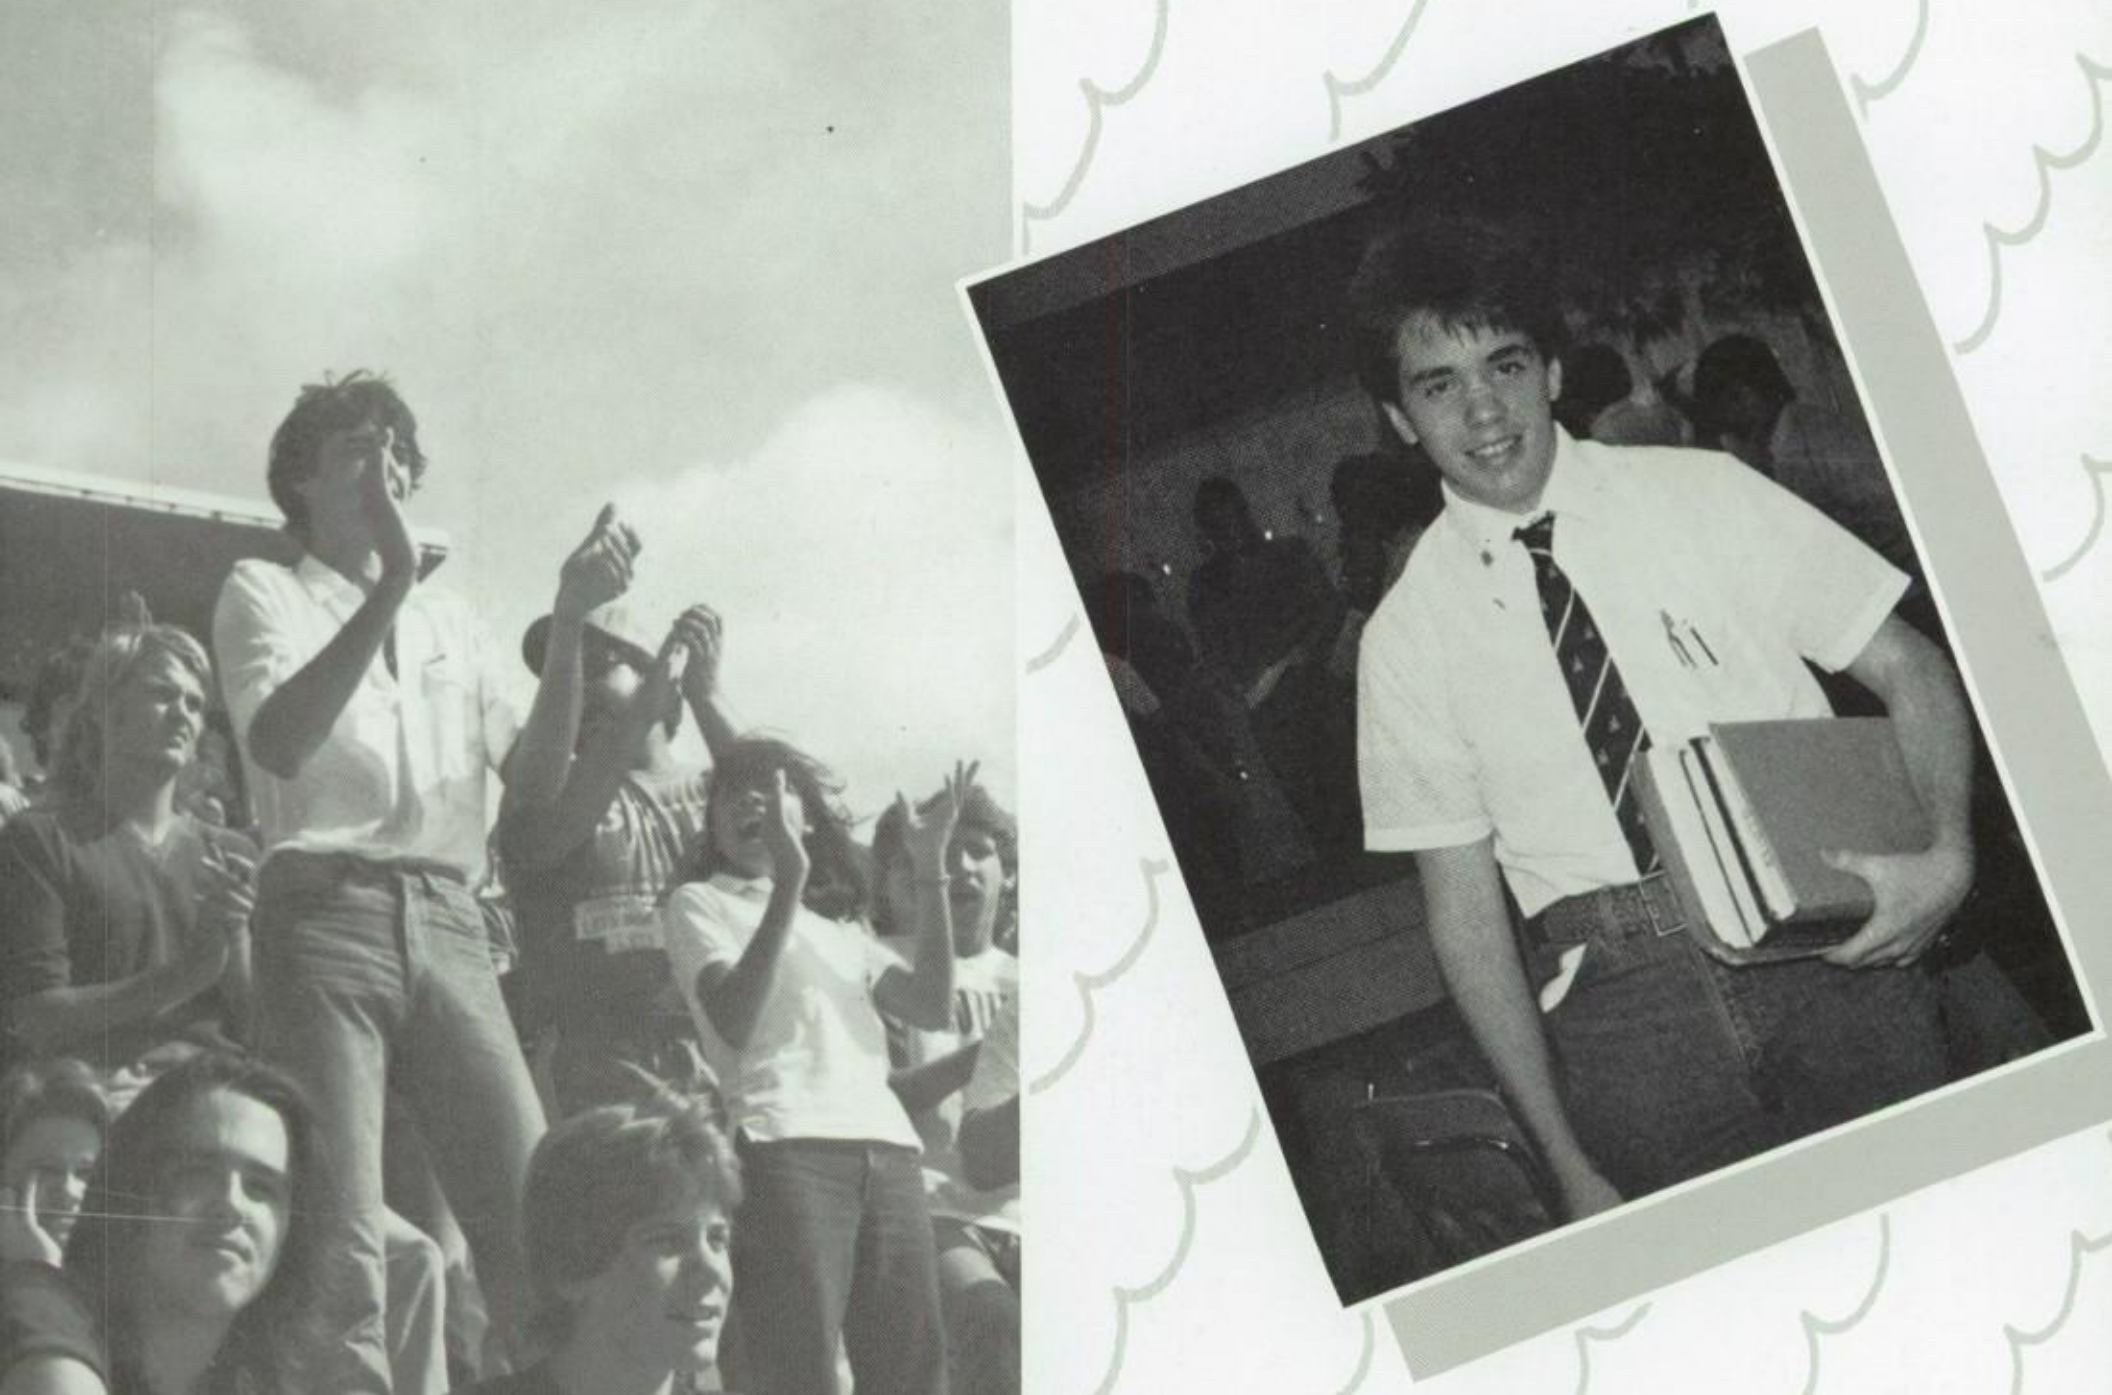
Other memorable events also happened this year, like the presidential election and the summer olympics, in which the U.S. took many gold medals.

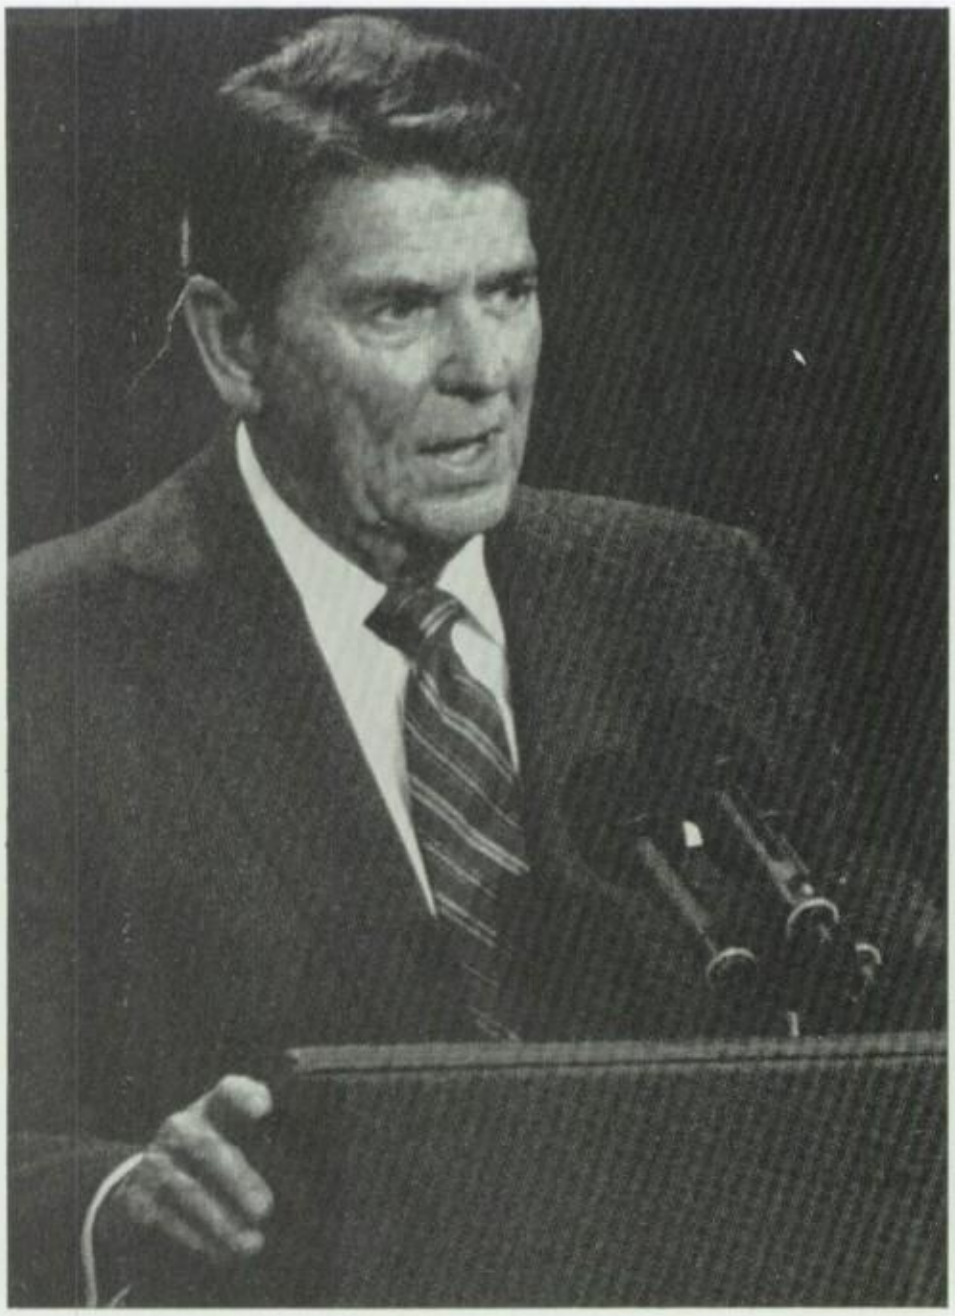
Many historic events were also made at Ridgewood this year. We had our first football festival and crowned a queen. We also had nerd day which was a sight to see.

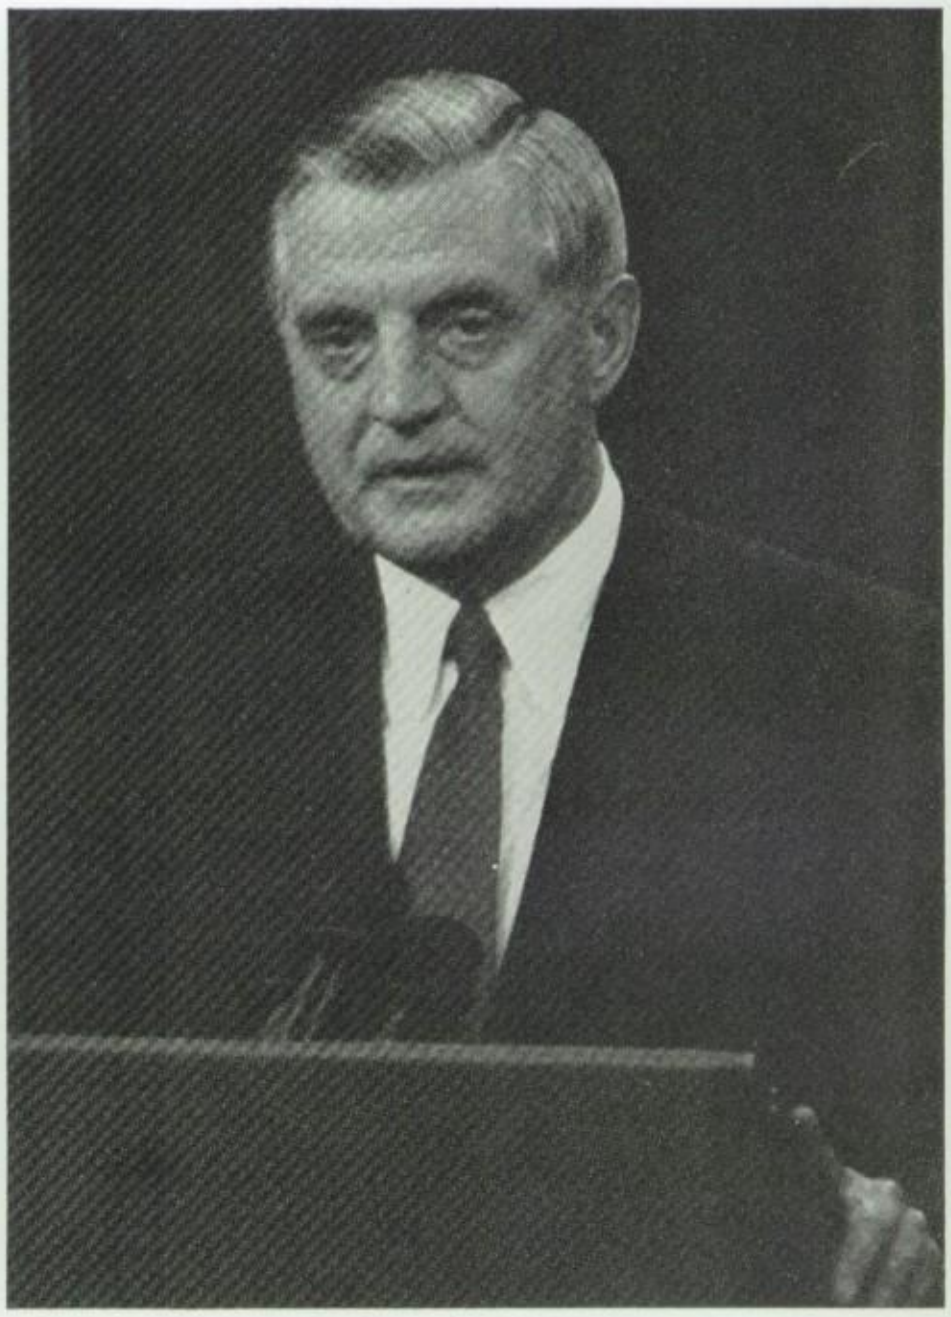
We can not forget to mention the blue and orange days, where many students went to great extremes to show their spirit for the best school around.

Best of Times

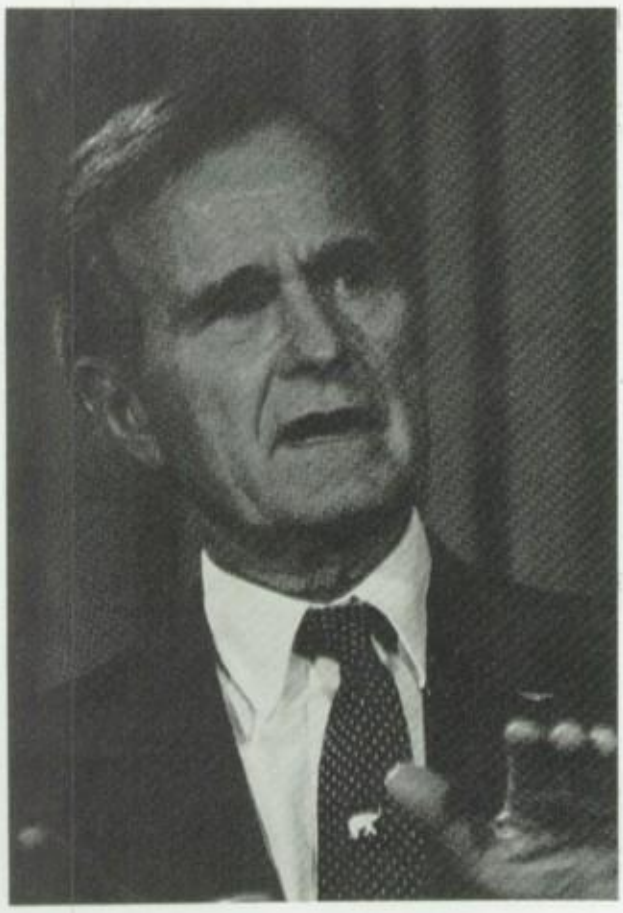








PRESIDENTIAL WAVES



1984 was quite a year for politics and politicians . . . an historical year. During the Presidential campaign, a woman, Geraldine Ferraro, ran for the office of Vice-President and a black man, Jesse Jackson, for President. The result was a massive landsline for the incumbent, Ronald Reagan, with Mr. Mondale winning only one state, his own Minnesota.

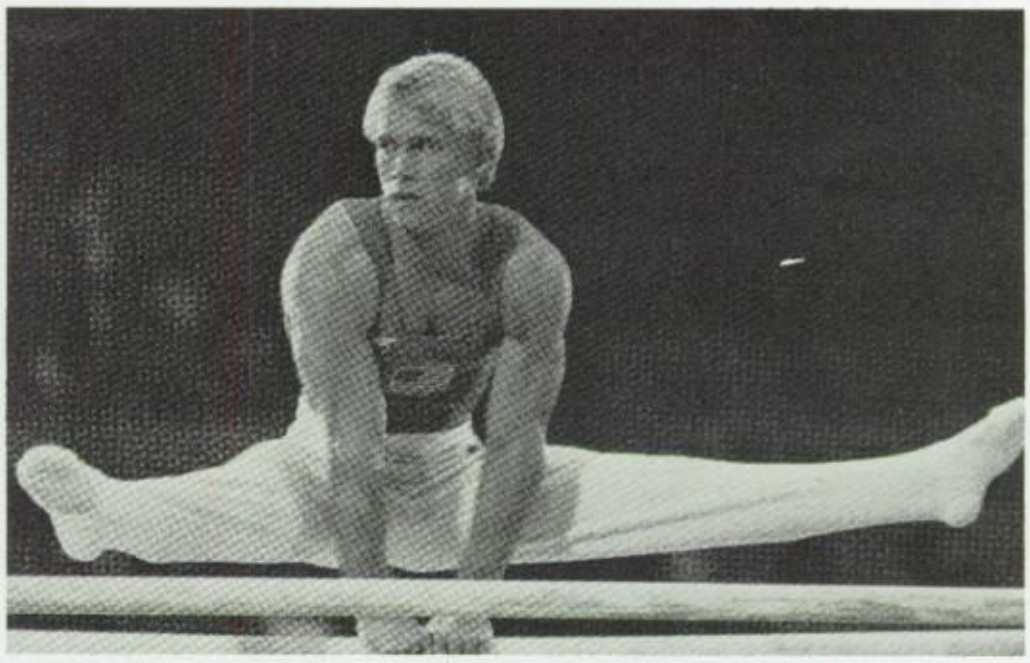
It seems the Democrats and Republicans had different answers for everything. Some of the issues were womens' rights, abortion, religion, the arms race, unemployment, and poverty. These problems encompassed all kinds of citizens, seniors, yuppies, blacks, unions, and religious leaders.

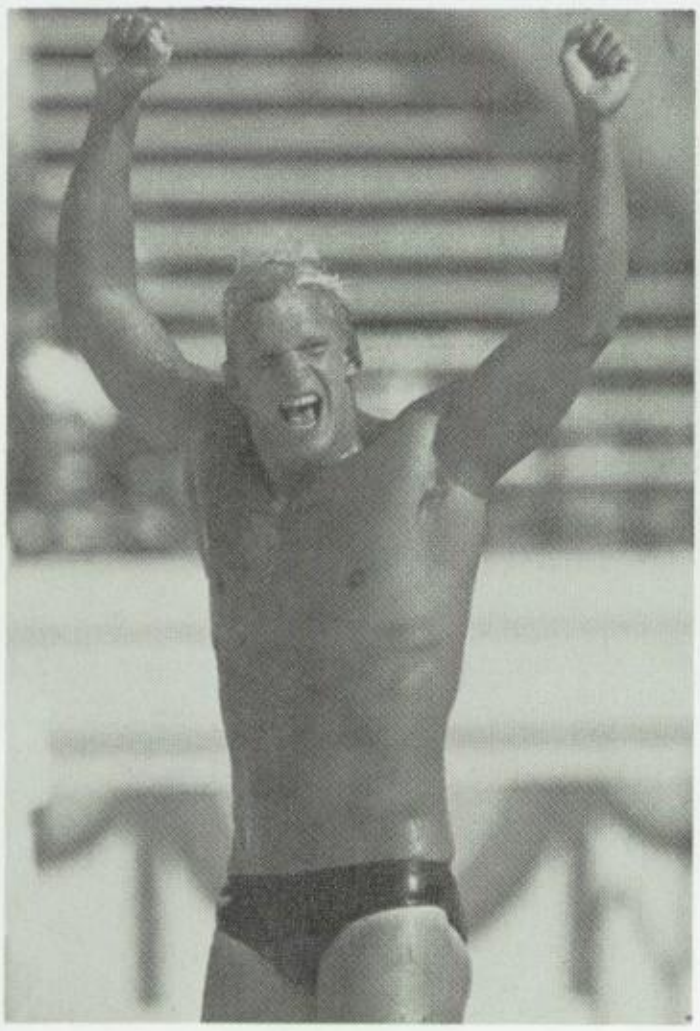
WAVES OF GLORY

U.S.A! U.S.A! chants of American pride rose from Sea to Sea in this great country we live in. A new sense of Americanism came from the Olympics being held in Los Angeles.

The United States dominated the games, winning a record number of medals. But we could not reflect upon our triumph without giving special thanks to the dedicated athletes like Mary Lou, Carl, Nancy and John.

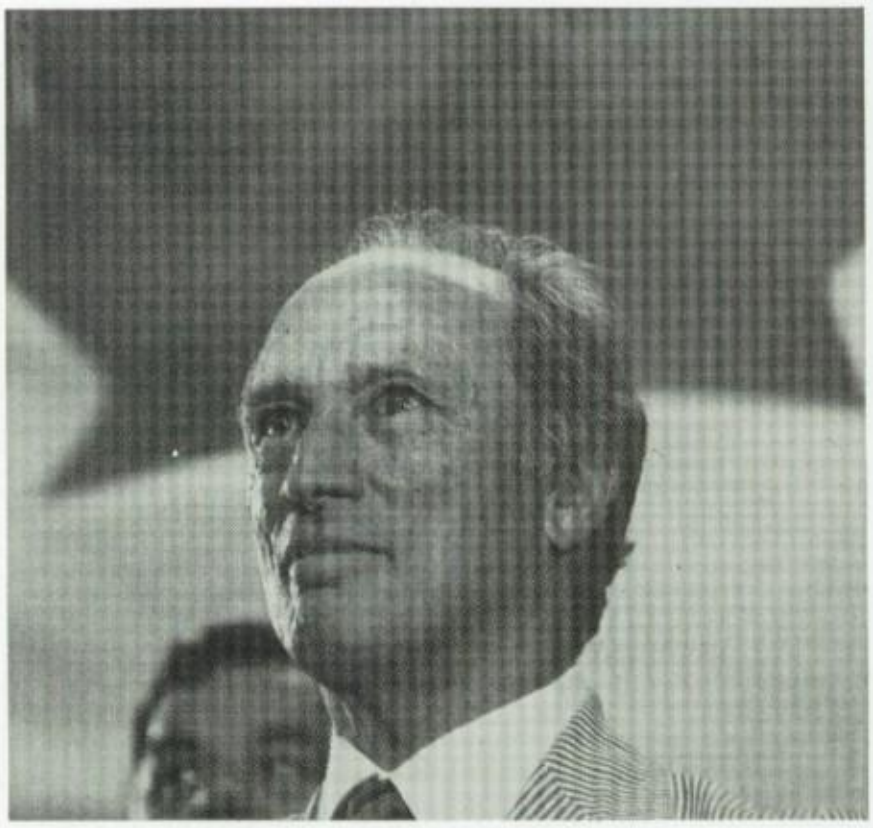
Although the Russians did not attend the Games, we know we could have done it anyway, and we'll do it again in '88!

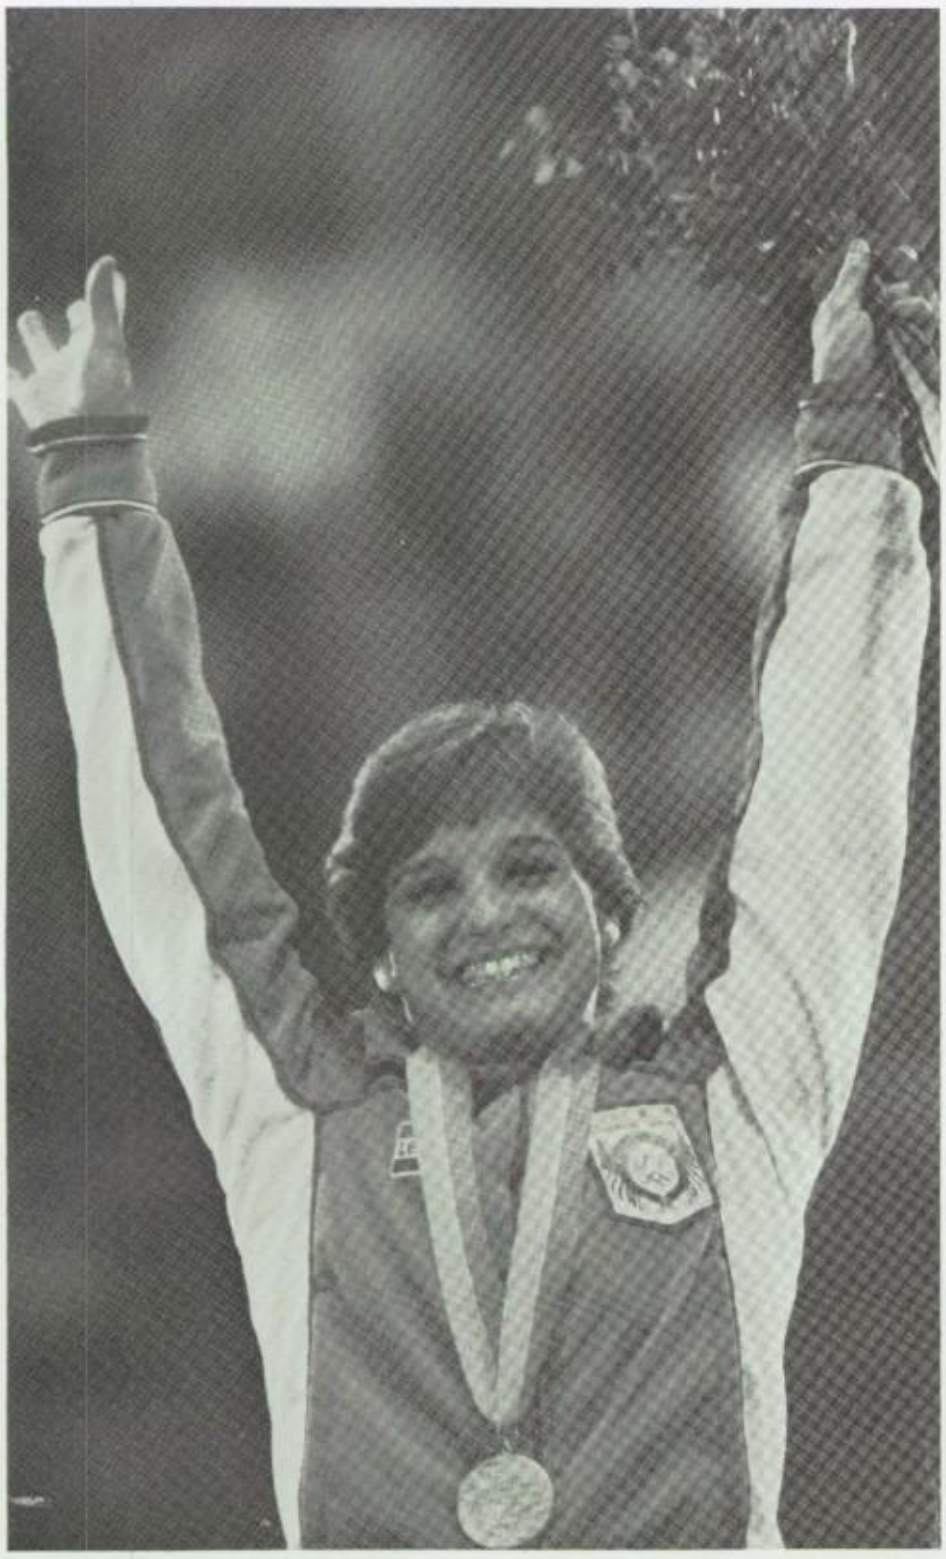




WORLD

The world was a busy place in 1984. China's efforts to curb their population explosion with the one child per family program (right) seems to be working, and the U.S.A's neighbors to the north, Canada, changed leaders after 16 years. Pierre Trudeau (below) retired as Prime Minister of Canada and Brian Mulroney took over. Princess Diana had her second child in 1984, Prince Harry, third in line after his father Prince Charles, and his brother Prince William to the English throne. Also, late in 1984, the cream of British pop music talent got together and formed Band Aid, a band to help the starving in Africa. The band featured Duran Duran, Phil Collins, Paul McCartney, the Boomtown Rats, Frankie Goes To Hollywood, Wham, Sting, and U2.





UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

1984 was quite a year for the United States, we won the Games at Los Angeles, we re-elected Ronald Reagan for four more years, and we made more firsts in space with the shuttle.

America was soaring high on newfound patriotism and on old-time pasttimes like baseball.

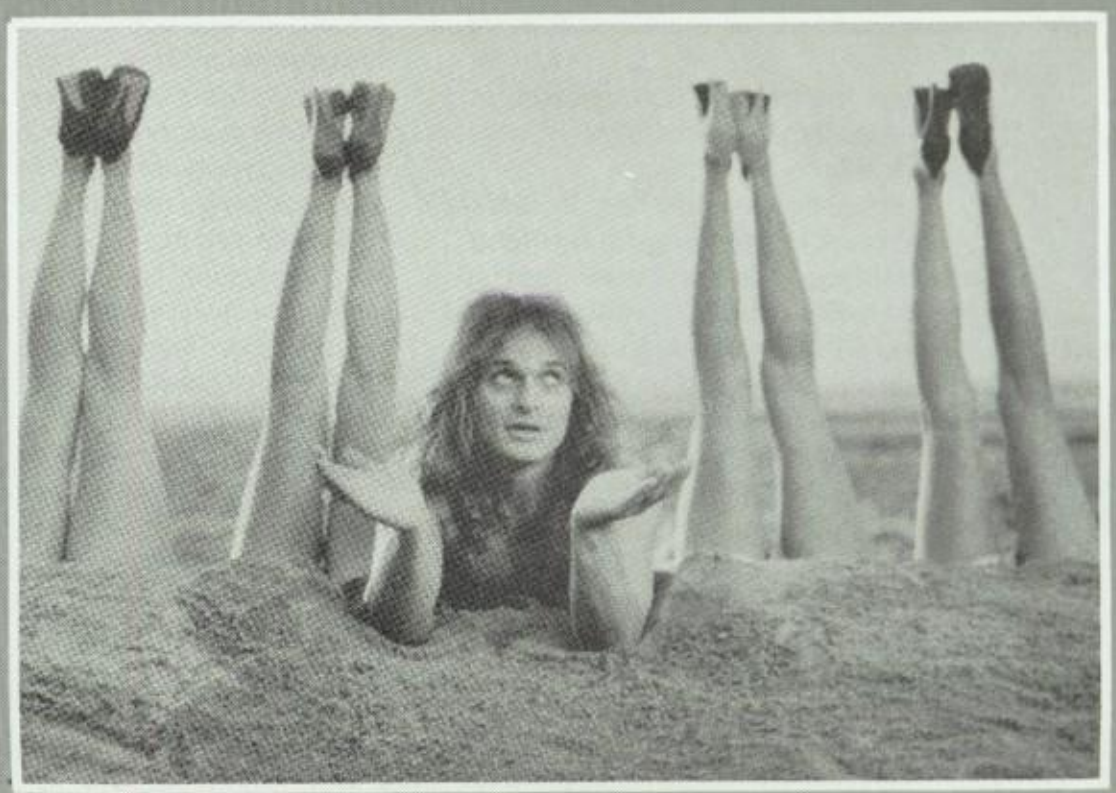
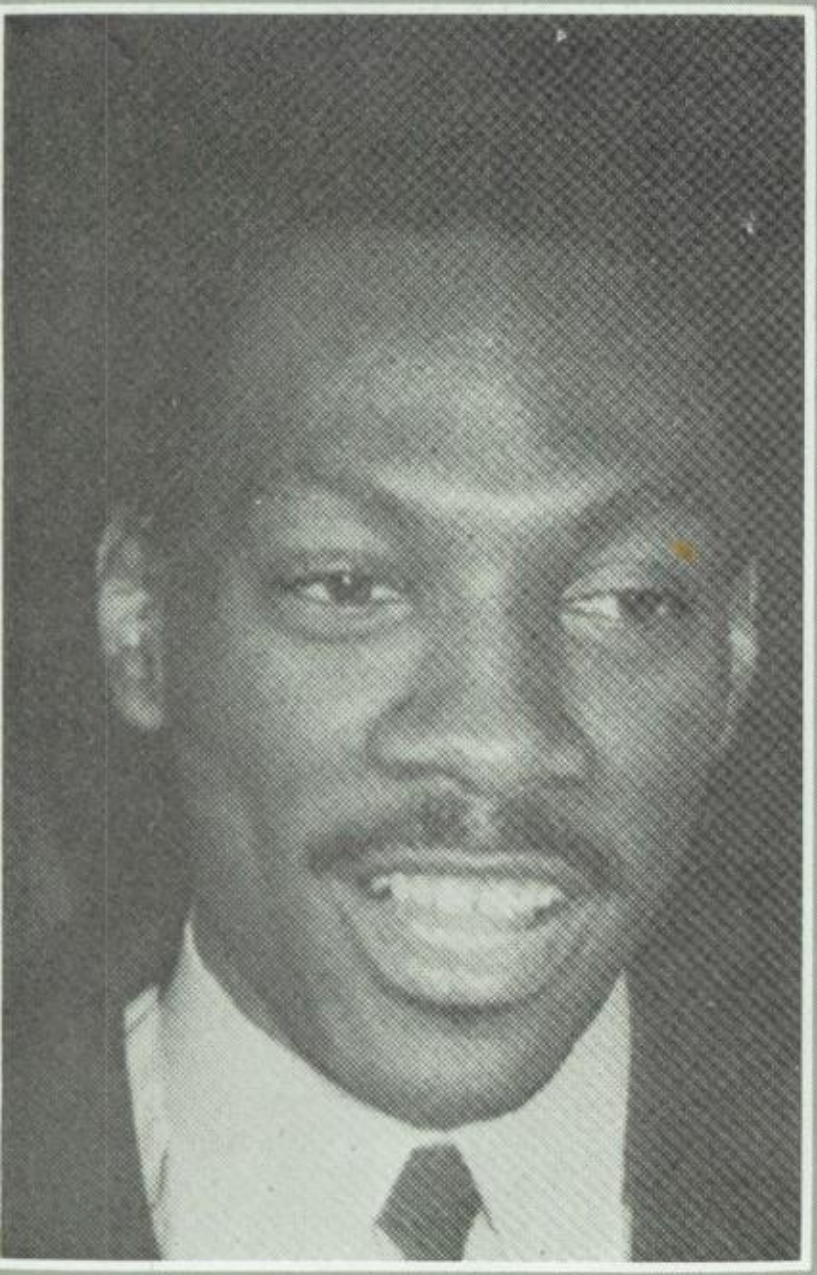
PERSONALITY PROFILE

CLOCKWISE: David Lee Roth takes a break from Van Halen and hits the charts with "California Girls". Eddie Murphy in Beverly Hills Cop made it big at the box office. Prince, movie star and singer, has become a controversial subject. Bruce Springsteen makes a comeback with his song "Born in the U.S.A." Madonna projects her "Material Girl" image. General Hospitals hot new couple, Jack Waggoner and Kristina Malandro, other wise known as Frisco and Felicia.





WE ARE THE HOUSE AN

One certainly can not forger Dave Dye's article stating that Ridgewood had no school spirit. At our first pep rally, and at those that followed, we definately proved him wrong. Whether it was during the wet T-shirt or loudest class contests or at Hudson's funeral, students were always filled with enthusiasm screaming the school song

Fall Football Festival

Mr. Krinn congratulates MaryLou Orlando and presents her with roses.

Michelle Gordon — Junior

Dawn Goredki — Sophomore

This year Ridgewood held it's first annual Fall Football Festival. The Football Festival was our answer to the traditional homecoming.

The student body was able to nominate six girls, two from each grade. The girls went out on the field during halftime. Everyone was filled with excitement as MaryLou was announced as the queen. So all could see the newly crowned queen, MaryLou was driven around the track in a shiny new corvette.

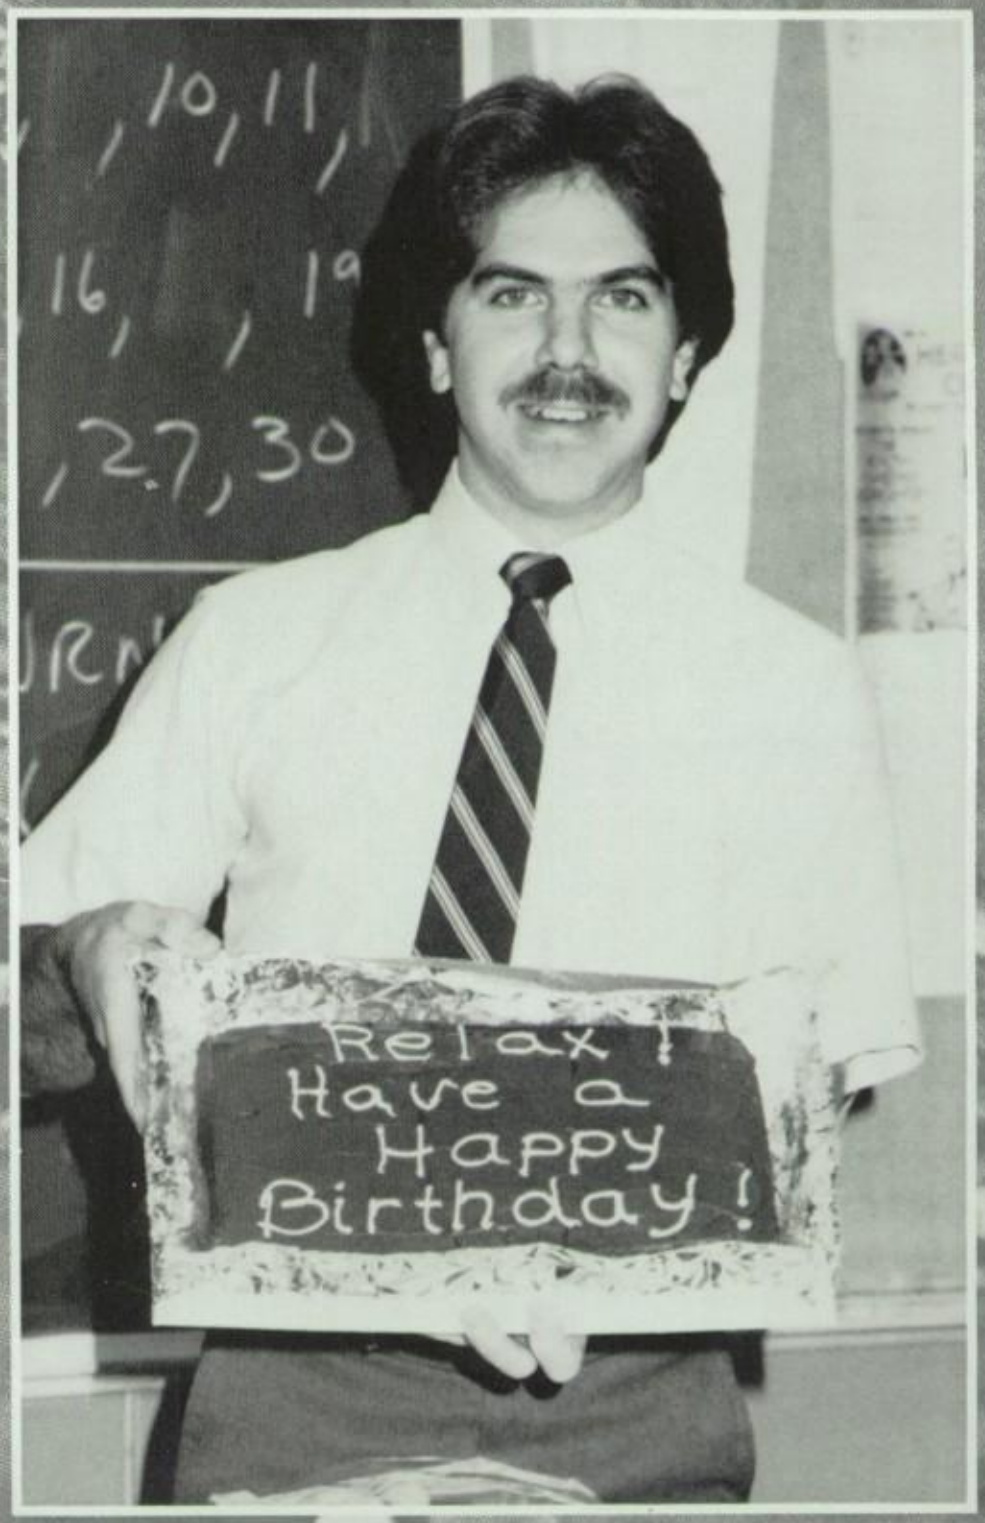
AFTERTHOUGHTS



Do you ever get the feeling that you forgot to do something? Well here we mixed in a little bit of everything to avoid just that situation. On the top left, Jason Kay relaxes while finishing a book in English. In the bottom left, Wanda Ruggeiro gives us a look of astonishment, asking herself, "Hey guys, what's going on?" In the top middle, Michelle Kimbro shows her "poise and dignity" at a basketball game. Below middle, Mr. Sbani shares his birthday cake with the rest of us. Immediately to the left, Tracy Duvall says, "I'll smile, but please don't take my picture," while at a track meet. Below, a simple basketball game turns into a free-for-all. To the right, Jill Thompson waits patiently for a ride home.

HEATWAVES

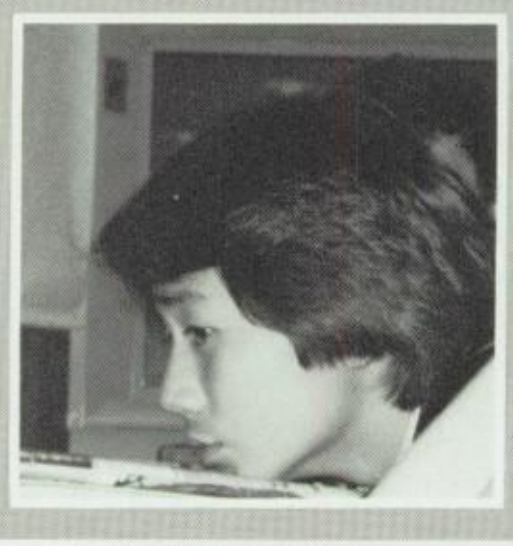
Living in Florida, especially this close to the Gulf, we have enough sunshine to last a northerner for life. On the opposite page Mike Champagne helps out a carwash along with Allison Calhoun and Allison Lusby, but is he really helping? To the left Jennifer Johnston poses for us at Howard Park. Below, the famous "causeway" is the place to be for some sun and fun.

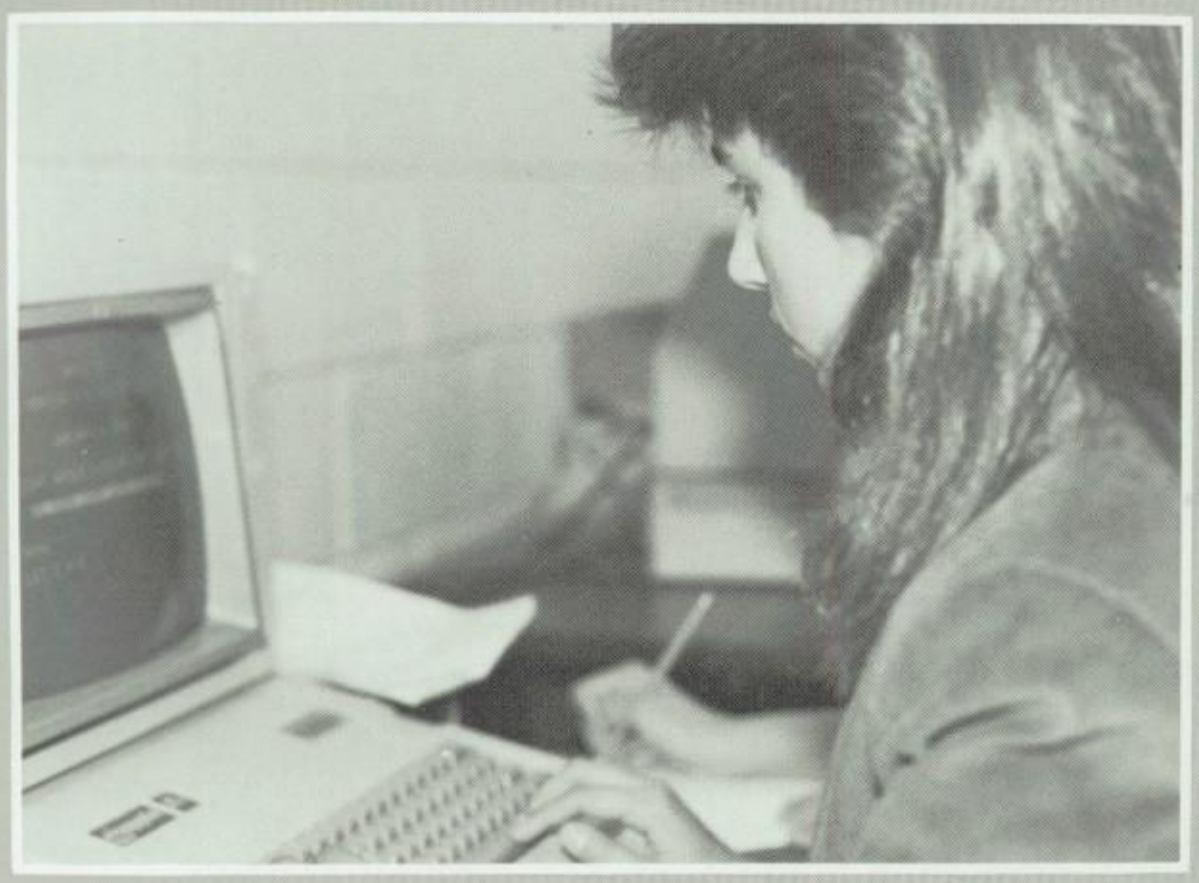
OPEN YOUR MIND AND

SAY

AHH!

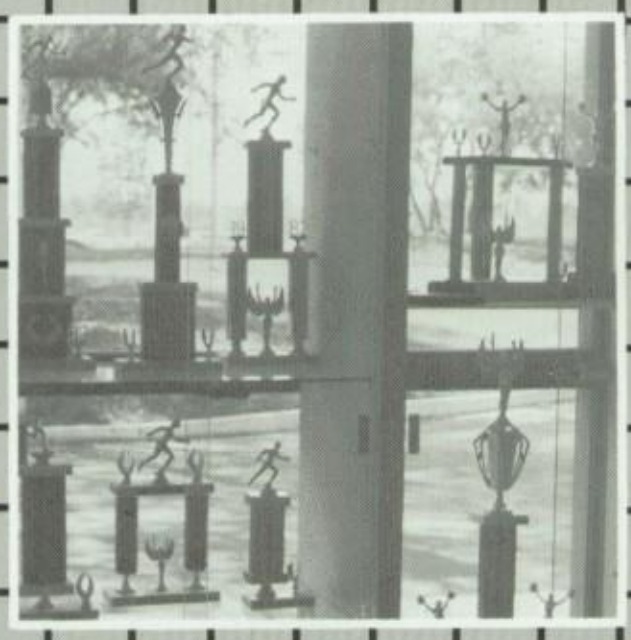
Hasn't there been a class where you walk in, sit down, and say to yourself, "I didn't understand this yesterday, I don't understand it today, and I won't understand it tomorrow, so why bother?" It's happened to the best of us. Seriously, though, education is one of the most important parts of our lives, and luckily Ridgewood has one of the best high school faculties in the state. No wonder we're so good.

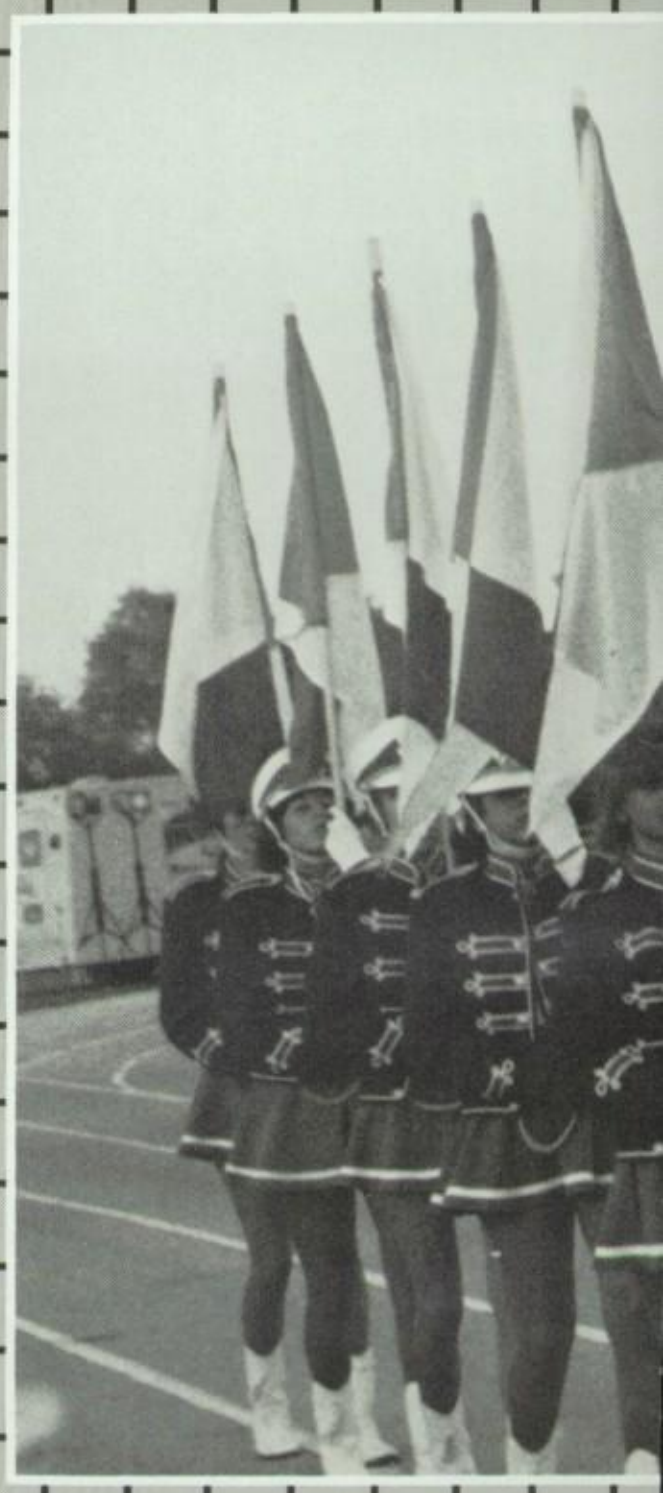




Top left: Mr. Persall smiles for the camera. Left: Jim Abbey studies the homework assignment. Top: Tammy Burger realizes that Analytic Geometry isn't so rough when you think about it. Top right: Chang Bahng decides that it's not worth doing right now. Above: Julie Halick works on the computer for Mr. Heath.

PHOOEY ON





THE FORTUNE TELLER

There were a lot of things that went on during this school year that no one predicted would happen. TOP LEFT: Here the Cross Country Team discusses a strategy. They now rank 4th in the state. LEFT: Our well stocked trophy case shows us one of the reasons we compete. CENTER: The drill team performs at a football game. They received a superior rating for the first time in Ridgewood history at the Indoor Guard competition. BELOW: Another prize well worth a struggle. BOTTOM: The Ridgewood High School Science Team placed first at the Regional Fair, beating out Hudson High School, the four year champs.

IN TERMINO . . .

Finally the year has come to an end. It seems like it took decades, and yet it feels like we just started in August. Through all the lost and blurry pictures, broken equipment, and practical jokes, we managed to create the 1985 Rampage. The cost for publication was approximately $15,000 . . . well worth the cost. I hope that you had a great year and that the Rampage will hold safely many fond memories. Good luck in the future and I hope that you attain each one of your dreams.

Wayne Lewis

Youve been Great to Me + MARY this Yr. we Really owe you Alot! Sorry when we messed up with the Drawing Box! HAVE fun this Summer!
What Else Can I say except thanks for Not ONLY being my TEACHER, but my Friend!
